Summer jobs and vacations divert Scots

Students at H.P. enjoyed a summer full of fun. Vacations, camp, work, and more school called a big crew after a busy '81-'82 school year.

Once again Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts drew general Hi-Parkers. Seniors Amy Cristol, Lisa Crook, Dee Dockery, Nancy Dzina, Brett Robertson, Ellen Thomas, and Dana Wertheimer participated in the summer program along with Juniors Kelty Barber, Kit Canon, Jim Lancaster, and Laura Sherrill. Senior Kyle Krebs took advantage of Washington and Lee's summer program.

Industrious senior men discovered a new career to cool off, the Preston Car Wash.

Among those students who bronzed their bodies by life guarding at the University Park pool were Laura Apeland, Andrew Bremner, Duncan Bremner, Beth Fenton, Amy Patton, and Haden Stone.

Also into aquatics were H.P. swimmers Page Gunter, Jennifer Price, and Paige Wilbur who taught swimming lessons to those less talented.

Young Life took H.P. students to Castaway Club, while The Highland Park Presbyterian Church took their annual trip to Jekyll Island, Georgia.

Sophomore Wayne Clements went to Hawaii while Juniors Anne Worsham and Kathy Hall cruised around the North Cape of Norway. Senior Dianne Rembert could also be found cruising with her family.

Although most H.P. students easily entertained themselves, some just took it easy until the big day in August.

Here they come! HP's basketball beauties catch some rays on the Fourth of July. Kanakuk men: Trey Hill and his counselors have a blast at camp. Warriors: Amye Tatum and Carolyn Brown prepare their war canoe.

Muehlhoefer resides in HP through year

Senior Andreas Muehlhoefer, Highland Park's AFS student this year, discovered a different part of the world from his native Germany.

Andreas, a Senior play crew member, also sang in the Lads and Lassies choir second semester. In addition, he managed the varsity tennis team since, according to UIL rules, he is ineligible to play in matches.

Spending the year with Junior Josh Larson and his family, Andreas liked the "competitiveness" of school, but wished there was more free time after school. Also, he would have enjoyed eating his dinner in the middle of the day, as Germans do.

Asked about a major difference between the United States and his native country, he replied, "The people are different. In Germany, the young people feel much more responsibility for their environment."

The AFS Summer exchange program claimed two HP students. Senior Daphne Glover spent time in Japan while Junior Amy Watson travelled to Quebec. Melinda Means, a 1982 graduate, went to Germany for the school year.

All this attention: Andreas is introduced as the AFS student at the first home game along with other school officers. An All-American game: Andreas participates in HP tennis. A slice of life: Andreas speaks in German to his Biology project, the pig.

Students visit various schools in September

Halls buzzed with excitement during the month of September as HP students and faculty reunited after three months of summer fun. First on the agenda was Howdy Week, which included a dance, friendliest boys and girls, and Super Scot spies.

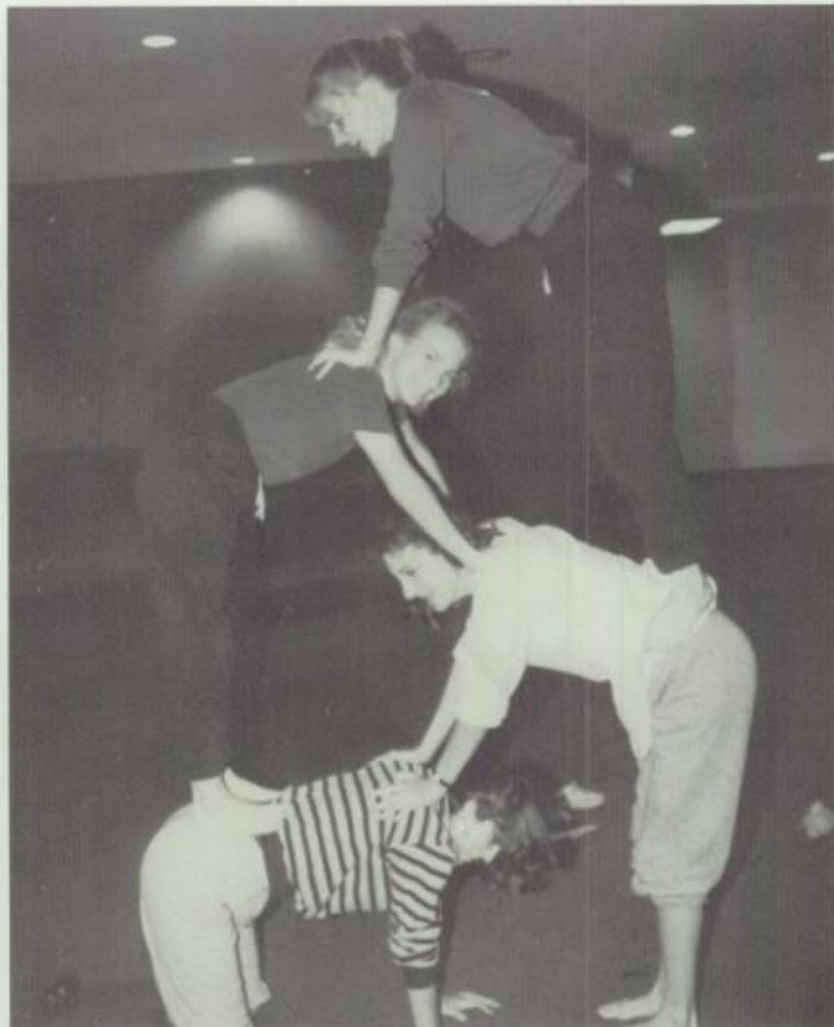

The high school hosted two important evening programs in September. Open House, held on September 15, introduced parents to the teachers. College Night took place on September 22 and offered interested students a look at over one hundred schools, both in and out of state.

An impressive number of National Merit Semi-finalists and Commendees were named in September. The Semi-finalists were Deborah Armstrong, Elizabeth Crook, Long Dang, Dee Dockery, John Hamlin, Eric Hulett, Dabney Israel, Lucy Meyers, Michael Segrest, Bart Showalter, and Patrick Williams. Commendees included Carolyn Brown, Burke Burnett, Kim Coffin, Lloyd Denman, Kim LaGrange, Cole Ramey, Dave Reichert, Leslie Schaar, Patty Schiern, Scott Shelton, Jennifer Simmons, Walt Sosnowski, Tom Stewart, Kathy Sturgeon, Charles Walters, John Weil, and Laura White.

In sports, the fighting Scot football team began the season with a victory over MacArthur and continued undefeated through September.

Team tourneys, tryouts occupy October days

After suffering through the agony of the PSAT and SAT, students occupied their October days with fun-filled activities.

While the Key Club sponsored its annual car wash, the Record and Tapes club narrowly lost to a star-studded faculty softball team. The girls' football teams began their rigorous practices.

Margaret Boyle and Scott Roby captured the leading roles in this year's senior play, "Blithe Spirit," directed by Mrs. Linda Raya.

Several foreign students from the area spent a school day at H.P.H.S. as guests of the AFS club on its annual International Day.

As the month progressed, the athletic teams demonstrated their skills. The H.P. Netters finished third in the region and fifteenth in the state. Meanwhile, the cross country girls placed first in district.

Seven choir members filled places in the All-Region Choir. In addition, the band participated in the HEB and UIL marching contests.

The new varsity cheerleaders election procedure went into effect this year. The newly elected cheerleaders will train under the current varsity squad.

Homecoming, themed "Yesterday," and the Hi-Lite Mother-Daughter Tea rounded out the month.

Left: Metamorphosis: The masked woman, alias Kathy Sturgeon, prepares a potion for the magic show. Practice and more practice: Junior girls reach for the top as they strive for varsity cheerleader. Stand back: Junior Glenn Evans admires his award as player of the week. Hunchback of HP: An observer finds hunchback Dee Dockery a frightful sight at the chemistry magic show. Above: Vivé La France: Area French visitors try the Highland Park routine as guests of the AFS Club. Super Stunt: Junior Lendy Leggett gets a boost from John Boughton during the varsity cheerleader tryouts. May I have this dance?: Senior Mark Pillsbury waltzes with Robert Beecherl at an October Pep-Rally. Go ahead . . . Just try it: Tough guy, John Patterson dares the HP football team to fight. Straight facts: General Robbie Risner reveals the truth about drug use to Hi-Lites members.

Student body crowns Sowell football queen

Homecoming 1982 was off to a great start with the Scots shutting out South Garland 42-9. During half-time the six Homecoming Queen nominees were presented to the crowd by their fathers.

The dance was held the next night, October 23, in the new gym. The theme this year was "Yesterday" and couples danced to the music of the "Refugee." The gym was decorated with black and white balloons and streamers and a poster size picture of each of the nominees.

Escorted by a varsity football player, each nominee walked down the aisle to the tune of her favorite song. Kelley Hill was escorted by Brian Glasscock; Ginger Kenyon by Bryan Miller; Debbie McCulloch by Robert Turner; Dianne Rembert by Henry Miller; Margaret Shelmire by Phillip Worthen; and Mary Sowell by Jody Tompson. The student council president then presented roses and crowned Mary Sowell as the 1982 Homecoming Queen.

A night to remember: A radiant Mary Sowell and her escort, Jody Tompson, take the places of honor on the stage at Homecoming '82.

Scot playoffs excite students in November

November was filled with many exciting events for HP students. The Senior class worked hard to present the annual Senior play, which was Blithe Spirit. It ran from November 17-20. Linda Raya directed the play, while Scott Roby and Margaret Boyle took the lead roles.

In the way of sports, the Scot football team finished the season on November 19, losing to the Carter Cowboys. The entire student body and faculty supported the Scots all the way with new activities for pep rallies. The teachers displayed their abilities with a dance routine, and later the Arlington Heights Cheerleaders visited. The Basketball team opened their season by winning their first games against Sherman and R. L. Turner.

The H.P. Cheerleaders ventured to San Marcus for the United Cheerleading Association competition on the twentieth and won a top rating. On the thirteenth, Hi-Lites held their dance with the theme of "Double Trouble". Each couple had to dress alike at this affair.

Death defying stunt: Arlington Heights cheerleaders amaze Scots with their incredible stunts.

Left: Crazy Connie: Senior play rehearsal calls for all of Connie Shannon's spare time.

You ain't seen nothin' yet! Senior women support the Scots by painting run-through signs.

Street spirit: After a pep rally, the Scots join outside to yell.

Electrifying helpers: Leigh Bywaters and Lisa Reed work on the Senior play.

Blithe Spirit

Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit was the 1982 Senior play this year. Mrs. Linda Raya directed the play with the help of her two stage managers, Cynthia Hill and Michael Young. Technical director, Dennis Day, contributed much time and effort in designing the set. The cast rehearsed daily from October 12 to prepare for their opening on November 17.

Blithe Spirit is set in present day England. Scott Roby portrays the role of Charles Condomine, a free lance writer married to his second wife, Ruth, who is played by Margaret Boyle. Suzanne Porth and Connie Shannon were double cast as Madame Arcati, a medium who conjures up the ghost of Charles' ex-wife, Elvira, played by both Debbi Roberts and Stephanie Jackson. Close friends of the Condomine's, Dr. Bradman and his wife also join the seance. Dee Dockery and John McDaniel were double cast as Dr. Bradman, while Kathleen White and Stephanie Purnell took turns playing his wife. The Condomine's maid, Edith, was acted by Shirley Reese and Gail Ward.

The play would not have been successful without the tremendous work and support of the crews behind the scenes. A $300.00 profit on ticket sales gave the Senior class of 1983 the honor of making more money than any class at HP. Many consider Blithe Spirit to be the most successful Senior play presented at Highland Park.

But, darling: Scott Roby pleads with Margaret.
What's going on?: The Condomine seance.
Hmmm: Margaret and John converse.
Oh, my goodness: Stephanie Purnell munches.
Dear Charles: Stephanie Jackson seduces her love.
Abracadabra: Connie Shannon conjures a spirit.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation named twelve Highland Park seniors as semi-finalists this year as well as sixteen commendees. The semi-finalists scored in the top one half percent of the nation on the PSAT/NMSQT taken during the fall of their sophomore year. Commendees achieved their titles by scoring in the top five percent nationwide on the same test.

Semi-finalists were Debbie Armstrong, Lisa Crook, Long Dang, Dee Dockery, John Hamlin, Eric Hulett, Dabney Israel, Lucy Meyers, Patricia Scheiern, Michael Segrest, Bart Showalter, and Patrick Williams. Commendees were Carolyn Brown, Burk Bernet, Kim Coffin, Lloyd Denman, Kim LaGrange, Cole Ramey, Dave Reichert, Leslie Schaar, Scott Shelton, Jennifer Simmons, Walt Sosnowski, Tom Stuart, Kathy Sturgeon, Charles Walters, Jon Weil, and Laura White.

The Semi-finalists went on to compete for National Merit finalist standings and for university scholarships.

Students pack library for entertainment

December at H.P. proved to be a month of forgotten schoolwork as students turned away from it all and looked forward to the all-important holidays. The basketball team traveled to Austin where they placed fourth in the prestigious Austin Tournament, winning their first two games. The awaited day finally arrived; on December 19, students packed the library to see Harry (Mr. Wilkes), Larry (Dr. Puckett), Jerry (Mr. Smith), Mary (Mrs. Dillard), and Phyllis (Mrs. Glover). The ubiquitous Mr. Smith rocked the crowd with his jokes (which remained the same all six periods), Dr. Puckett impressed all with his guitar talent, and Mrs. Hoebecke refrained from calling a Pepsi-Break. Afterwards, students headed home for holidays of skiing, tanning, and stanning.

Students return for second half, party season

Highland Park social life picked up during January. The guys, not to mention the girls, loved the numerous "girl ask guy" dances. The senior ladies presented a Roaring Twenties Casino Ball. Not to be outdone, Hi-Lites hosted a pajama party on January 28th; Dee Dockery was the Hi-Lite King.

Basketball games continued throughout the month of January. The newly elected Varsity Cheerleaders began their season; they were present at several of the basketball games, leading the enthusiastic crowds.

Scots attend parties, dances in fun February

February got off to a busy start with the Football banquet on February 2, in the cafeteria. On the seventh the National Association of Secondary School Principals visited the school for their 67th annual national convention. The teacher's tea was held in the cafeteria on the ninth. The senior varsity cheerleaders performed for their last time at the basketball pep rally where Elizabeth Thompson received red roses and a kiss from Bart Showalter after being named the 1983 Basketball Queen. Assistant Principal Claire Anderson also received a rose and a kiss for being the most devoted fan.

AFS hit a record high, selling 13,500 carnations on Valentine's day. The Junior Girls moved "One Step Closer" on the nineteenth with their dance at The Anatole with tunes by Rabbit.

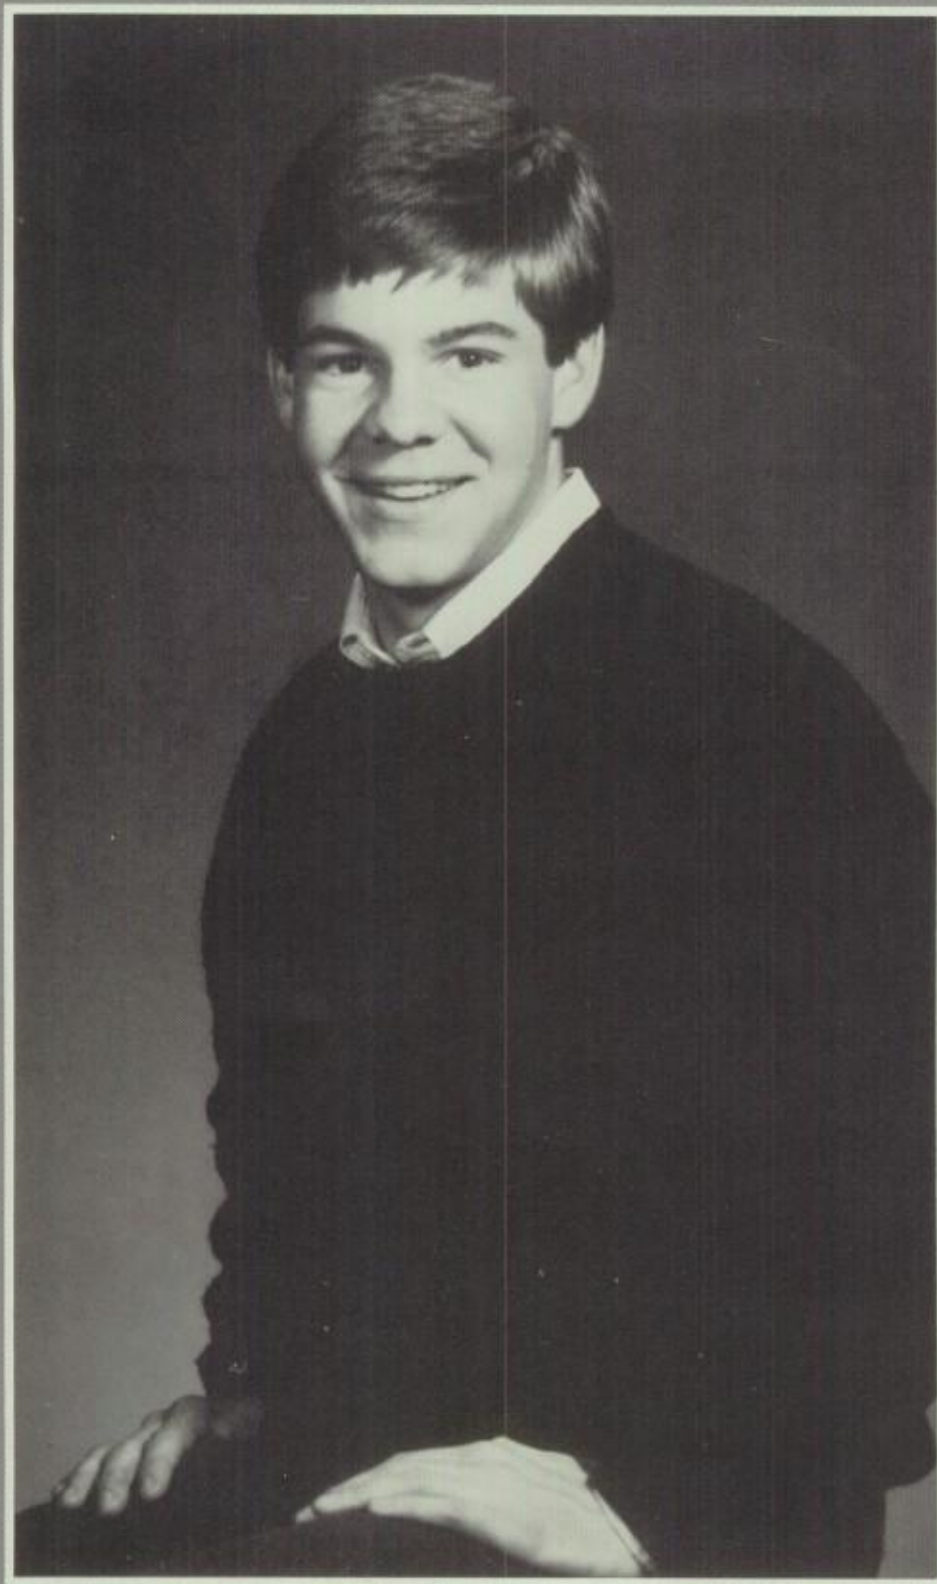

The Junior Symphony Ball had a "Silver Celebration" on the twenty-sixth, as students danced to the music of the Ultimate Force.

A sophomore career assembly and a Brotherhood week assembly filled the auditorium during the day in February, while the 1983 Musical, "Once upon a Mattress," attracted the night crowds, running from the sixteenth to the nineteenth. A record number of Seniors ran for the four spots of Senior Class officers.

Dee Dockery

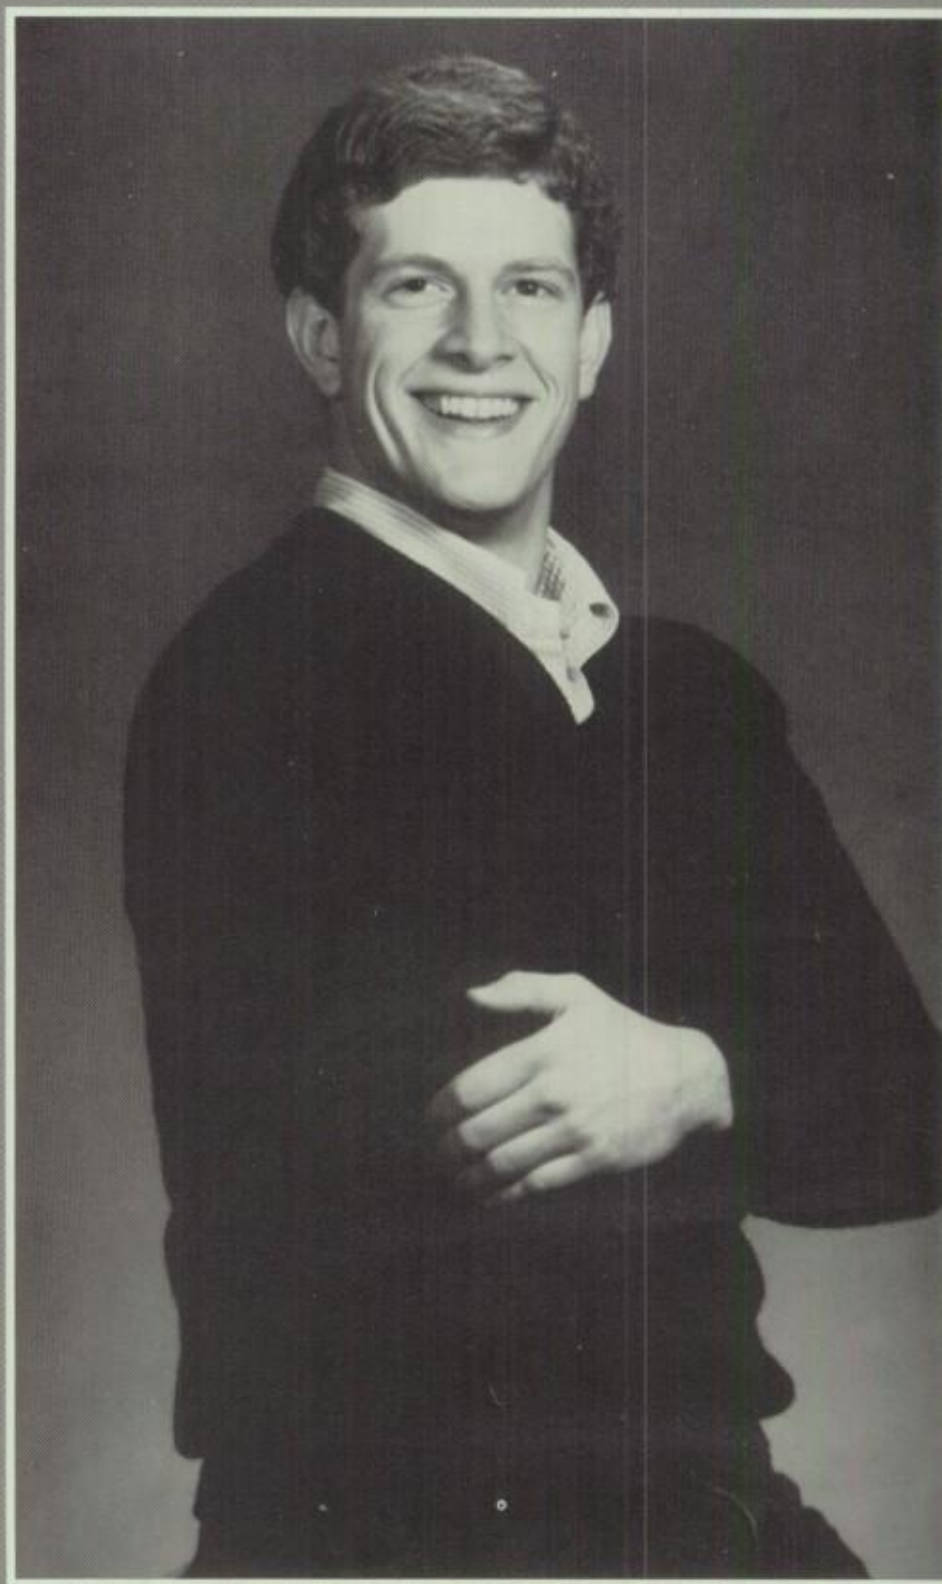

Move over and make a place for me at the top.

Dee is a respected leader in academics as well as social activities. He is a National Merit Semi-finalist, on his way to Princeton. He also received the NCTE award for literary composition. The treasurer of the Key Club and vice-president of Mu Alpha Theta, Dee is a member of the National Honor Society. He participated in the 1982 Senior play, Blithe Spirit, and performed in the musicals during his junior and senior years. He was also voted Hi-Lite king. As president of the guitar club, Ellison has been involved in various activities. He has enjoyed four years of football; two as a varsity star. His senior year he proved to be a valuable asset on the Scot defense.

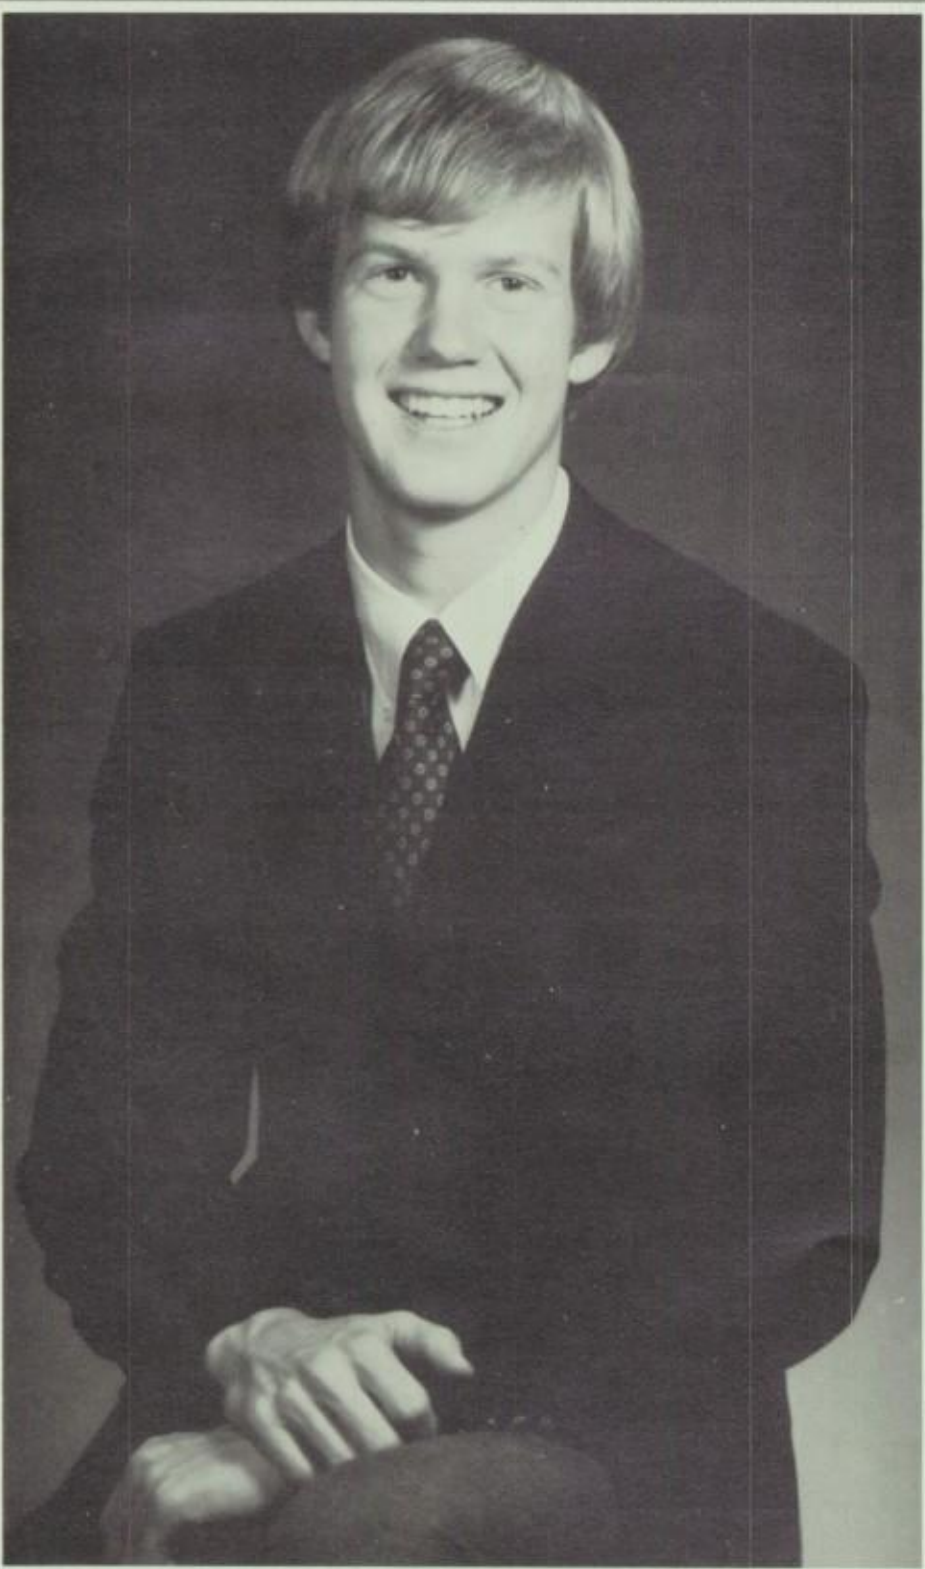

Ellison Hurt

The good die young — I want to live!

Vice-president of the Student Council, Dave has been involved in student government for four years. He is a member of the National Honor Society as well as the Leo Club. He has played varsity basketball for three years and led the team as co-captain his senior year. Phillip, co-captain of the 1982 football team, had a tremendous year as defensive tackle. As president of the Student Council, Phillip took charge of obtaining the band for the Homecoming Dance. He is a member of the Key Club and participated in the musicals during his junior and senior years.

SENIOR FAVORITES

Dave Reichert

Good nature is the very air of a good mind.

Phillip Worthen

Don't crowd, girls, you'll all get your chance.

SENIOR FAVORITES

Libby Bernet

A smile is a whisper of a laugh.

Margaret Shelmire

She wears a smile that won't come off.

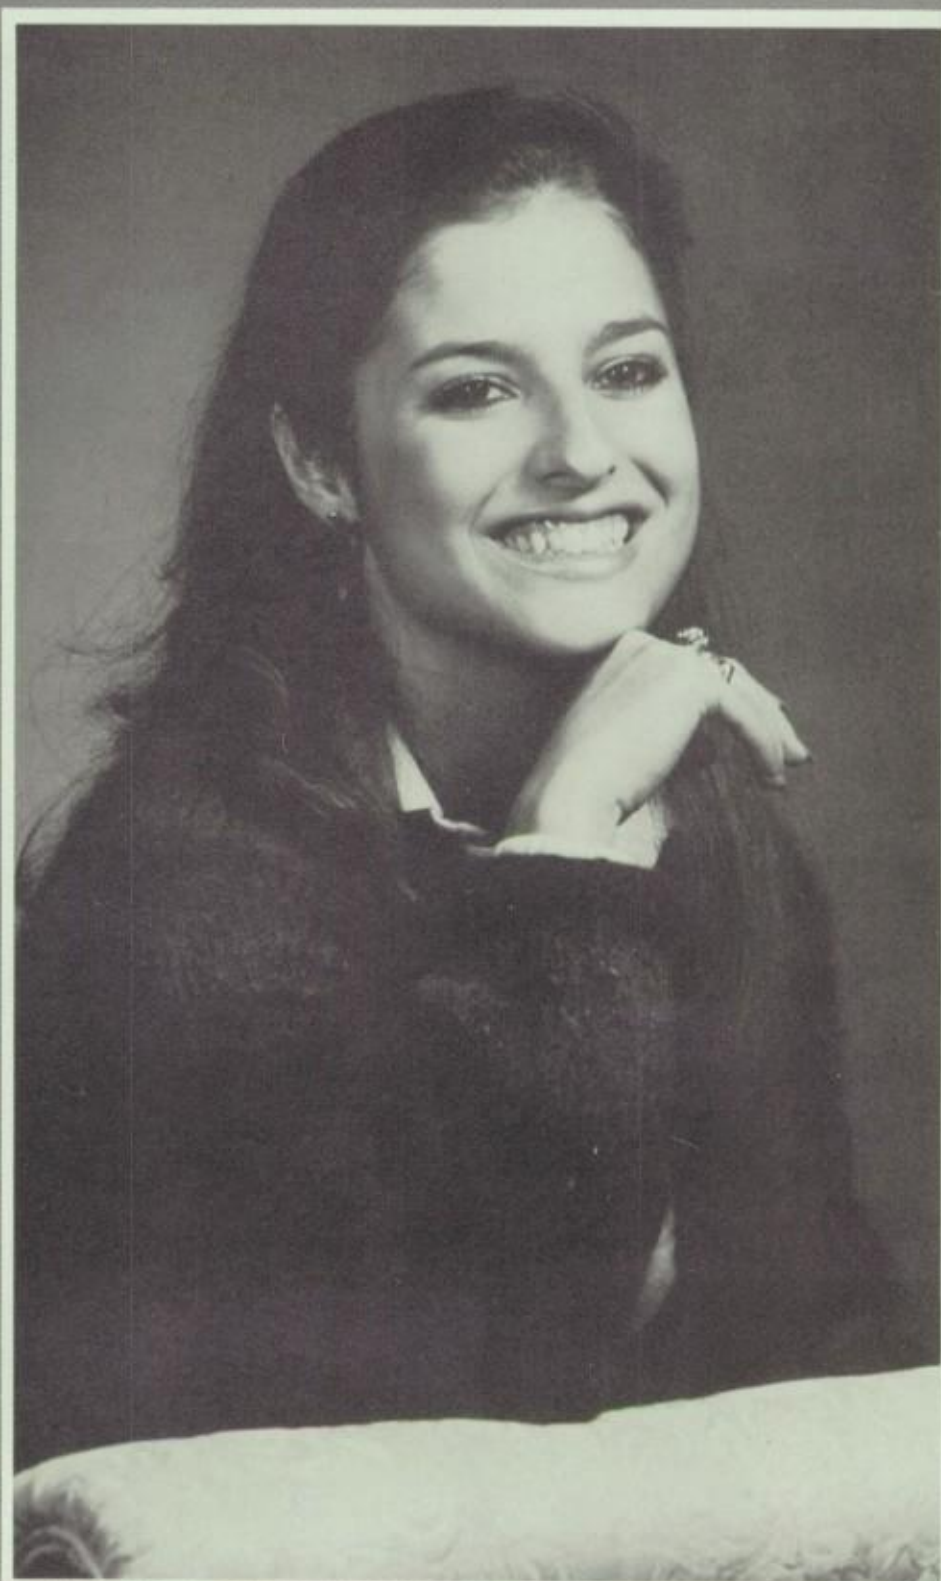

Mary Sowell

It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice.

Elizabeth Thompson

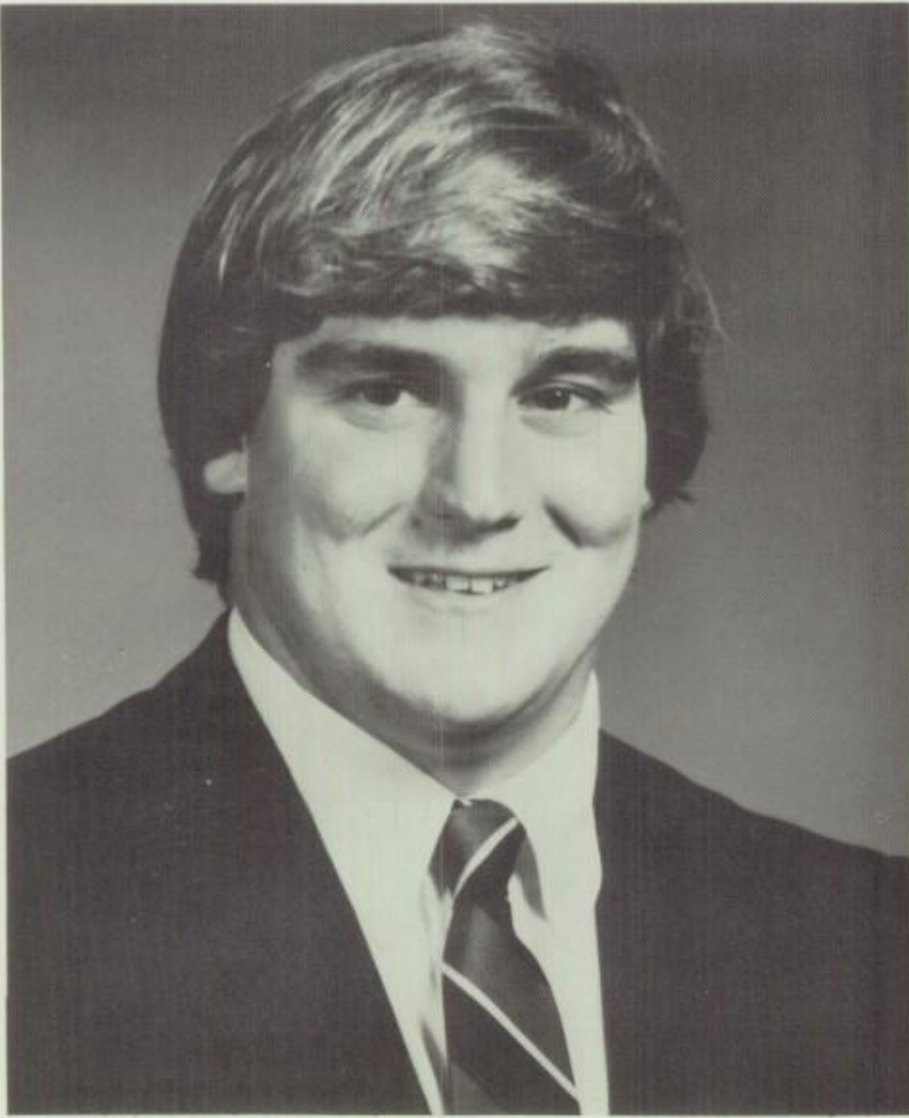

Happiness is not perfected unless it is shared.

Libby was not only a junior varsity cheerleader but also raised spirit for the 1982-1983 Varsity teams. She had a successful year leading the girls' varsity volleyball team to bi-district as co-captain. She also ran on the track team. She is a four year member of Hi-Lites and also participated in Girls' F.C.A., serving as vice-president her junior year. A varsity cheerleader for 1982-1983 teams, Margaret herself participated on the track team for two years. She was also a junior varsity cheerleader. Margaret was chosen as a homecoming queen nominee. She was involved with Hi-Lites, the yearbook, and served on the executive committee of the Student Council during her senior year.

Homecoming Queen Mary was a varsity cheerleader. As vice-president of the Junior Class, she helped plan the Junior/Senior Prom. She has participated in the Student Council and has been a member of Hi-Lites for four years. Elizabeth, varsity and junior varsity cheerleader, was voted Basketball Queen her senior year. She was a member of the girls' gymnastics team for four years. Lizzie was involved with Girls' F.C.A. and served as an officer her junior year. As a member of the N.H.S. and the Highlander editorial staff, she demonstrated her academic ability.

Mr. Munroe takes H.P.H.S.'s "principal role"

Hyer Elementary School's former principal, Mr. Tom Munroe, began his first year as the high school principal. He has also been a math teacher and a vice-principal at Highland Park. Although he misses the younger children, he enjoys being back at this age level.

With two daughters of his own, Mr. Munroe is comfortable around children. His younger daughter, Marsa, was a senior at Highland Park last year. She presently attends the University of Virginia. Consequently, Cricket, the family dog, is the only "baby" left at home.

Mr. Munroe's culinary talents are quite impressive. Every Sunday evening, he and his wife whip up a variety of omelettes. His personal favorite is a potato curry omelette which he is working on in the picture. For a new experience, Mr. Munroe and his wife judged cakes at the State Fair; they contended that it was a delicious but filling job.

Genius at work: Tom Munroe fills his new role as principal at H.P.H.S.
Below: A culinary craftsman: Creating omelettes is Mr. Munroe's favorite pasttime activity.

O'Quinn joins Anderson as administrator

Miss Claire Anderson, assistant principal for ninth and eleventh grades, continued at HP for her second year. In her spare time, she enjoys collecting antique furniture. About half of her collection is from her family. She has a bed that she has been working on for a while that is 102 years old.

She really enjoys participating and watching sports events. She was the starting pitcher in the Records and Tapes softball game this year. She feels it is important to compete in these school events.

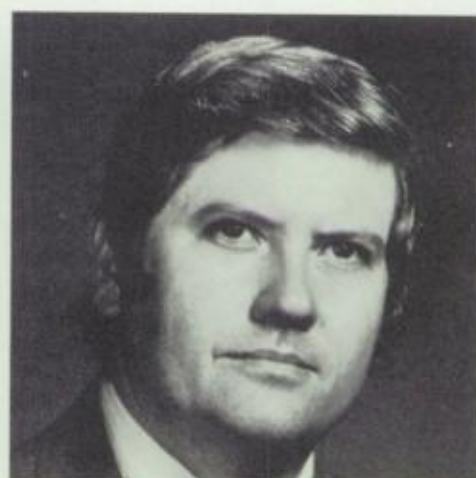

Mr. Don O'Quinn, a former physics teacher, is now the assistant principal to tenth and twelfth grades. He feels there is a big difference between these two jobs. As assistant principal, he can no longer plan out his daily schedule. There is no way for him to anticipate the problems that develop. He also has to put in more time before and after school this year. He enjoys his new job though, and plans to stick with it.

Mr. O'Quinn is interested in playing with the new computers. He had much to do in teaching the faculty how to use them. Poetry is another of his hobbies. His favorite American poet is Robert Frost.

Administrators award teachers for long terms

Meeting on the second Tuesday of each month, the HP School Board turned to athletic and computer matters for the 1982-1983 school year. Besides laying a new track at Park A, the Board oversaw the building of the indoor tennis courts, which were completed in April.

Computers were introduced into practically every department at both the middle school and the high school.

Computers will now be an important part of instruction throughout the school system.

The School Board turned its thoughts to recognition of teachers also. Certain certificates, pens, and clocks would be awarded to teachers who had served in the school system for the longest number of years.

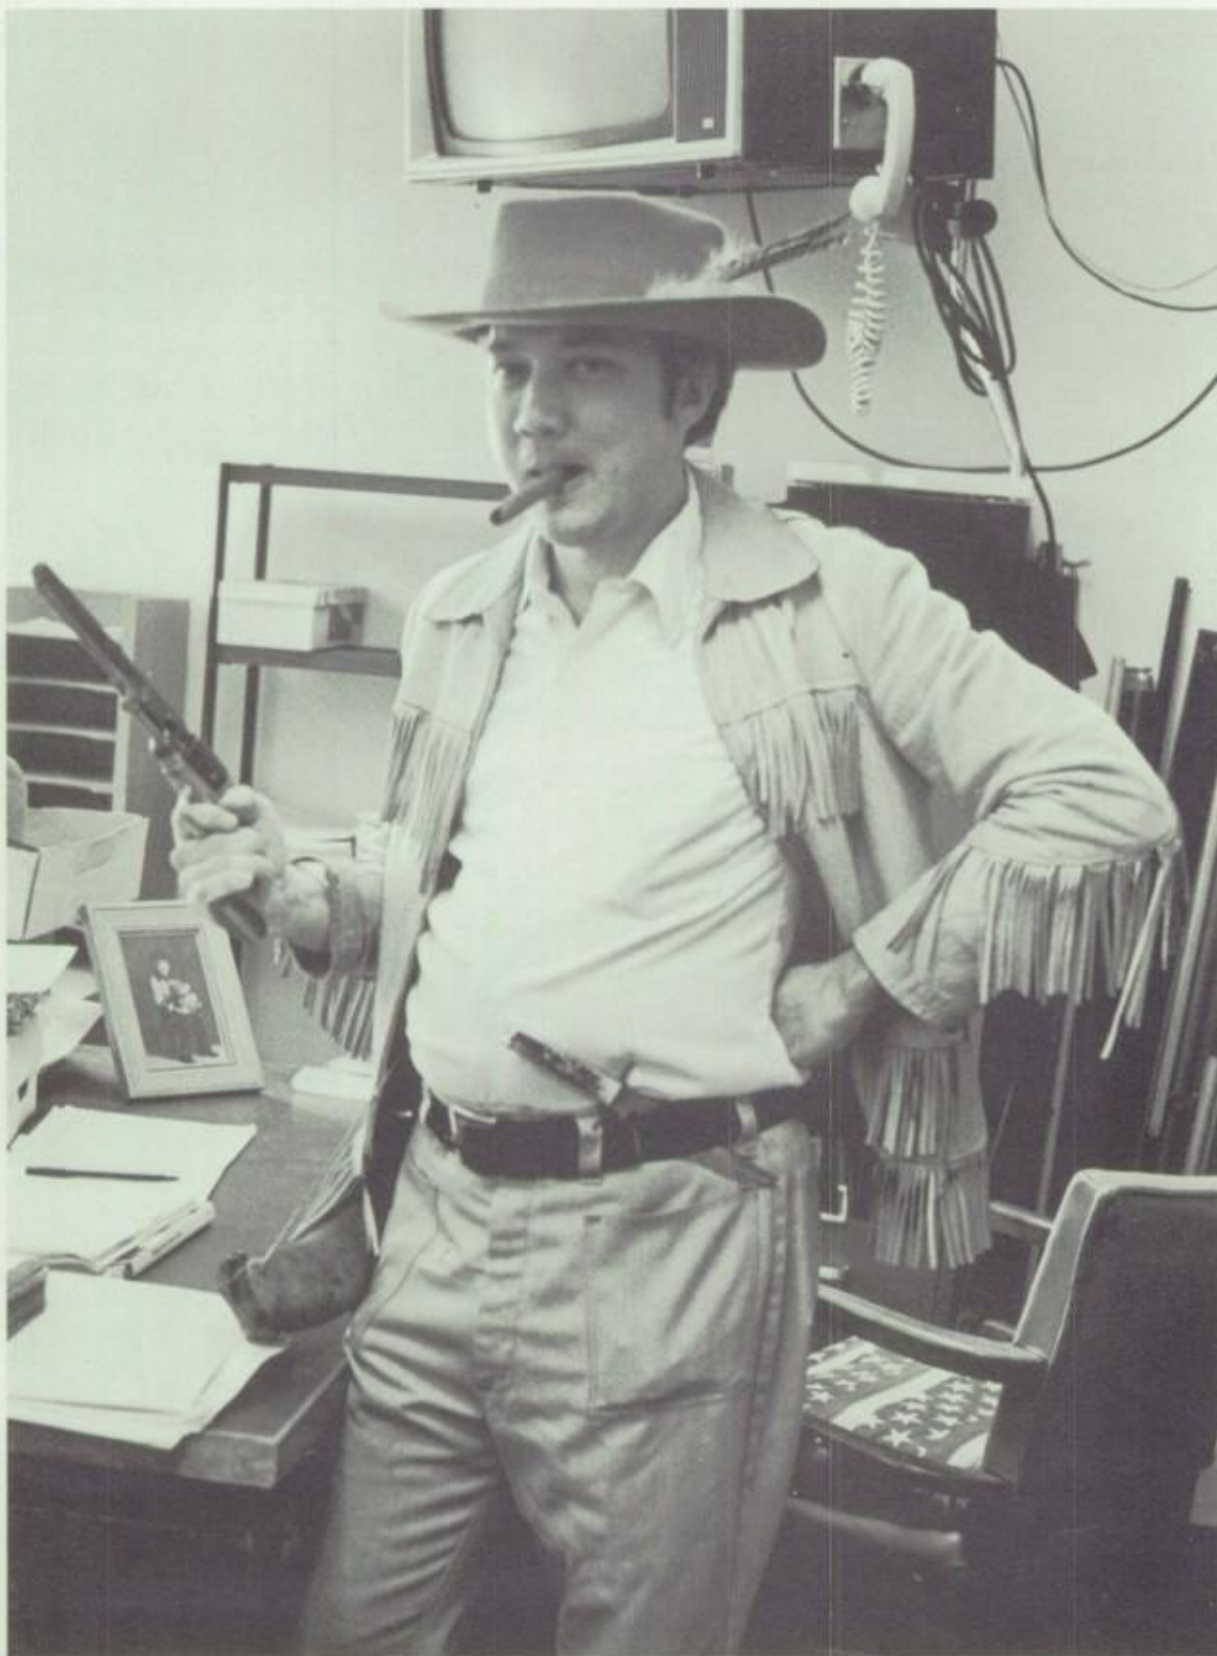

Thoughtful trio: Mr. Frank Marshall, Mr. Darrell Lafitte and Mrs. Ann Smith go over new plans.

A legend: Dr. Elgin Ware receives a handshake and a plaque from President, Walter Spradley.

Planning the calendar: Mr. Jack Davis, Dr. Eisenlohr and Superintendent, Dr. Power, discuss events of the 1982-83 year.

Faculty dress up for class, bee-bop to beat

During summer vacation, HP Faculty members entertained themselves with a variety of activities. Several teachers spanned the globe travelling in foreign countries. Bo Snowden traveled to "Italy" and "Paris" (Texas), while Chanda Monga went to the real London looking for a wedding gift for her daughter. Mary Hoebeke also participated in the European Connection. She journeyed to Scotland, England, Wales, and Switzerland. Several miles to the South, Clarice Kearley visited Greece and the Middle East, describing it as "a fantastic experience".

When not teaching, many HP faculty members spend their spare time traveling to exciting vacation spots or developing interesting hobbies. Ms. Genice Self enjoyed sailing in Florida on Coach Johnson's boat, and vacationed at Nassau in the Bahamas. Ms. Chanda Monga had an eventful vacation visiting London, viewing temples in Hong Kong, and narrowly missing a major hotel fire in Tokyo. An educational experience was had by Miss Cathy Orr, who attended a course on Michelangelo and Titian. This course reflects her interest in Art History, along with brass rubbing and handicrafts. Several teachers enjoy such athletic activities as sailing, jogging, snow skiing, and "working out", a "necessary" pastime, according to many faculty members. One busy teacher is Mrs. Nancy Hierholzer, who participates in Bible studies, reading, visiting art museums, and attending plays and symphonies.

Another Davy Crockett: Mr. Brown models the newest in frontier attire. The new Solid Gold dancers: This group of talented HP teachers practice their jazzy disco routines.

It's a Family Affair: Mom, Dad, and Christine Leitner go on a family outing to the weekly football game.

Many teachers caught the rays at different beaches. Chris Bardo and Mindy Simmons checked out the California beaches. Carol Seets traveled to "Highland Park's beach" — South Padre Island — and then headed south to Mexico. Mrs. Lorna Griffin enjoyed the tropical weather of the Bahamas, while Coach Emery received a "savage tan" at Lake Tahoe. Reyburn Myers relaxed in the California sunshine while Mrs. Self sailed in Florida.

For many instructors, summer was a time to visit relatives. Phyllis Giles spent a month with her family in Arkansas and Illinois. Dorothy Spencer traveled to San Antonio to see her son. Sandra Cox journeyed to Omaha to see her brother-in-law and his new baby. Betty Guest traveled to Ruidoso, N.M., to see her first grandchild Jonathan Guest. Nancy Hierholzer hit the road with her parents and husband to San Antonio and Nebraska.

Other Scot teachers escaped the bubble by taking leisure trips to all parts of the country. Doug Gibbons traveled through the Deep South. Miss Steensen headed north to New Hampshire. Kristine Goodan traveled through the Southwest to Phoenix, San Francisco and north to Seattle. Mrs. Newell visited Oklahoma and Shreveport. Cathy Morris accompanied the varsity cheerleaders to San Marcos, an experience she found "rewarding."

Bon Appetit: Miss Steensen patiently awaits her chance while students gorge on French cuisine.

Both the attendance office and the counselors' offices were busy keeping Hi Park students on the right track. The attendance ladies made sure all Scotties stayed in school and diligently checked out all notes and excuses. Additionally, the counselors checked out schedules for the right amount of credits needed for graduation. They aided students in finding classes which suited their interests and guided the Seniors of '83 with college planning.

The English Department was busy this year trying to stir up English students' interest in the chosen works. Freshmen experienced their first taste of Shakespeare with Romeo and Juliet, and they also delved into Greek mythology. They concentrated on short stories and poetry.

Sophomores studied grammar and read various novels, while major works students took a look at Julius Caesar and Richard II.

Juniors read Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter and some Shakespeare. Major Works Juniors tried to spark up literature by examining the background of the selections. They gave class presentations for many works.

Seniors read about government in Darkness at Noon, and about betrayal in Hamlet. AP Seniors were introduced to Plato and Socrates, and later moved on to Chaucer's Canterbury Tales.

Once again the Math Department had a productive year with Mrs. Hamilton as departmental head.

The Calculus students stayed busy with derivatives, limits, and the Chain Rule. They prepared themselves all year for the AP exam in May.

Miss Walters' and Ms. Patterson's Trigonometry students concentrated on sine, cosine, and tangent functions. Major Works Trig students studied in more depth, and used their creative abilities to demonstrate certain concepts.

Geometry students tackled the Pythagorean Theorem and proofs, while Algebra II students learned how to factor and graph. In the meantime, Algebra I kids worked on algebraic formulas and some graphing.

The Computer Math course proved to be a very popular elective under the direction of Mr. Mastandrea. The students became literate in the BASIC language.

The science department was booming with activity this year as Physics, Chemistry, and Biology students alike enjoyed an exciting curriculum.

Physics students, under the supervision of Dr. Bob Roe, were busy studying the laws of motion, while also having fun using the computers to conduct experiments and to play video games.

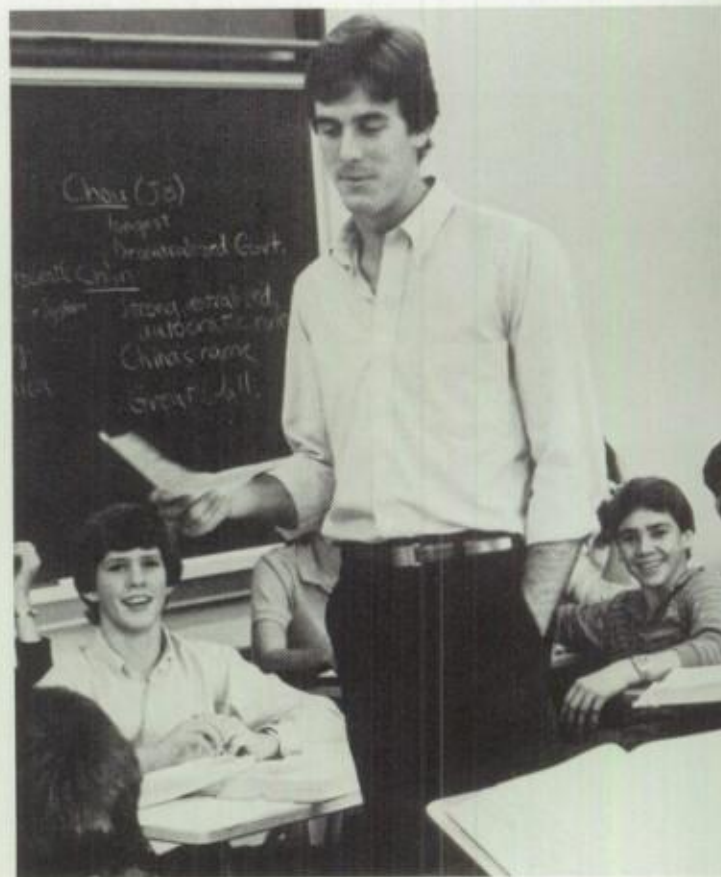

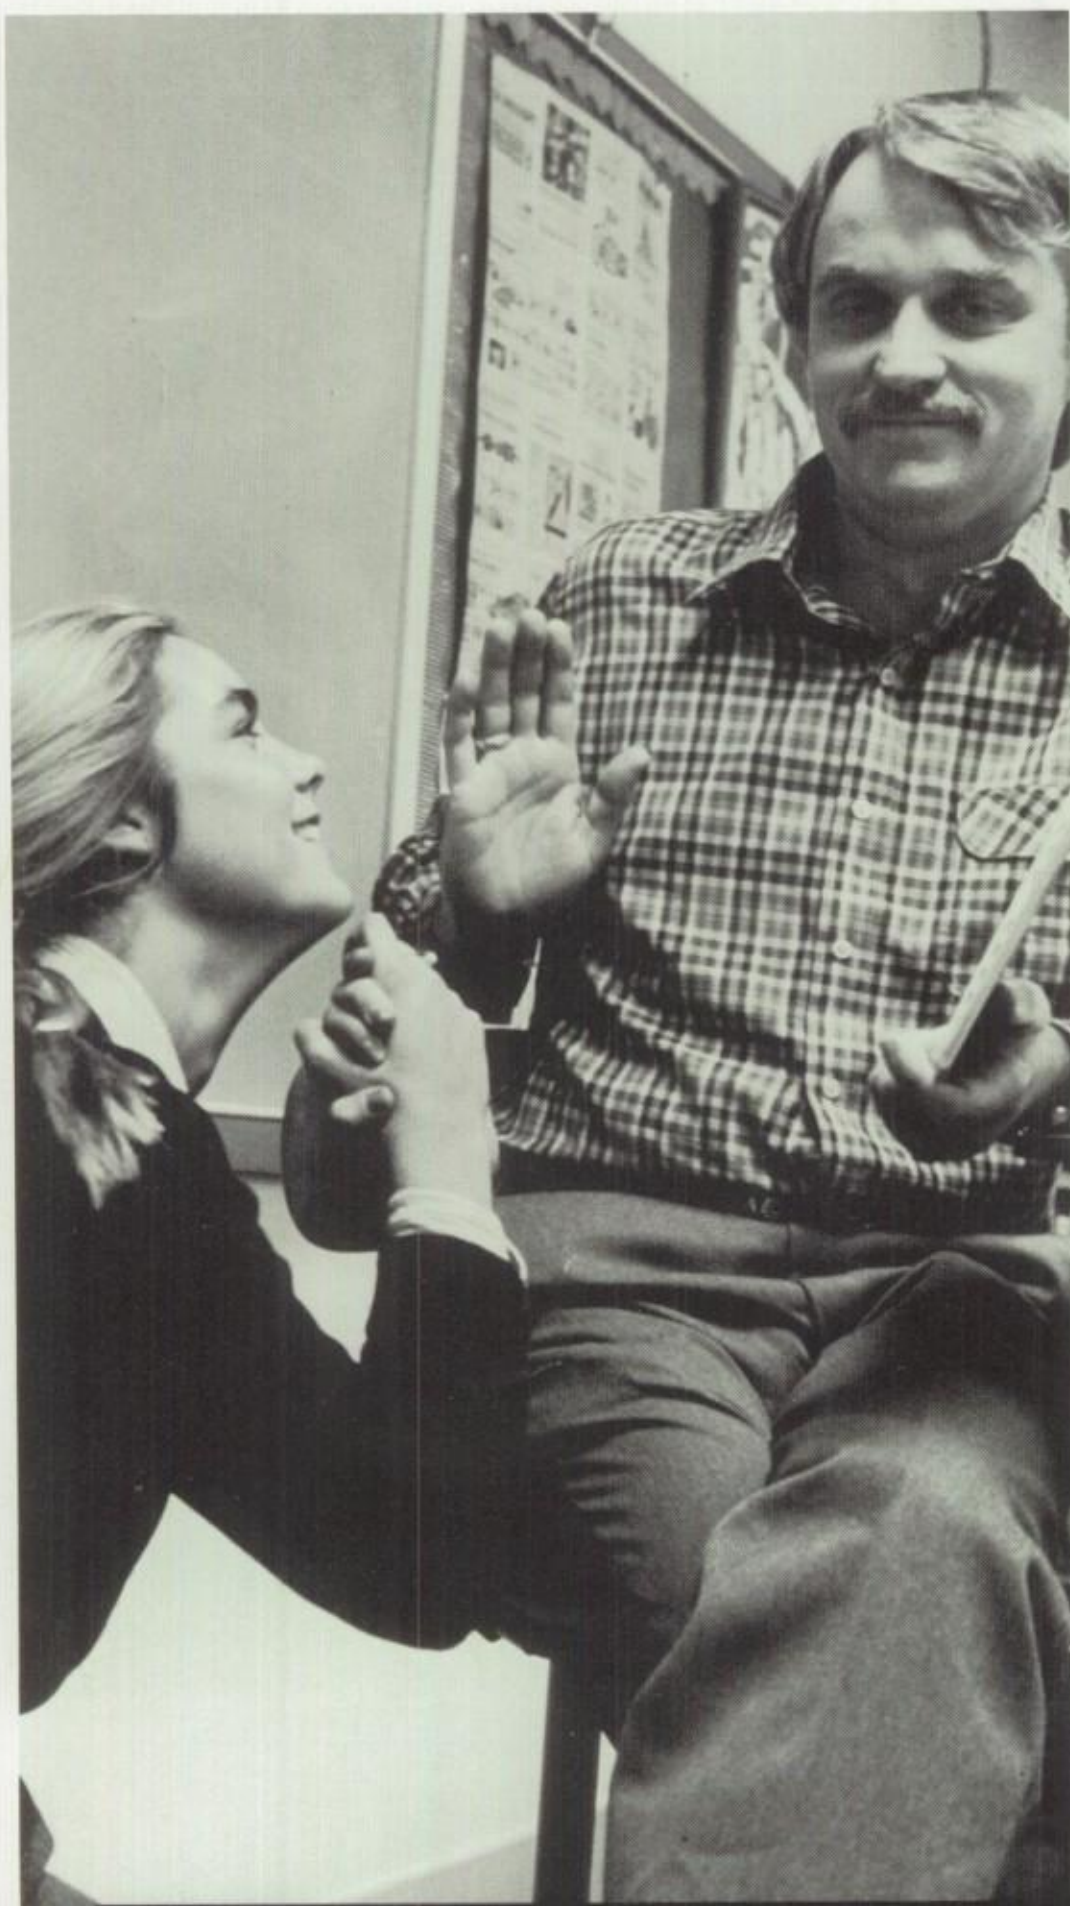

In addition, Chemistry students learned about the periodic table and various chemical properties. AP Chemistry students learned about the AP exam, under the direction of Dr. L. V. Puckett.

They conducted more advanced experiments, including exhibits for a Halloween show, yet had plenty of time for before school breakfasts, tacky tie contests, and Frisbee tournaments.

HP Biologists studied animal classification and DNA structure, while also taking a stab at dissection. The Advanced Topics Biologists spent the entire semester tracing the different systems of their fetal pigs.

Overall, the HP science department, as always, kept students fascinated and eager to learn.

That's the breaks: Amanda Clayton pleads with Mr. Lee to be merciful with her GPA.

History student: World History student teacher Doug Miller helps out in Mrs. Morris' class.

Map studies: A student gives an American History report.

The Social Studies Department had a very successful year. World History classes learned about the Renaissance and studied some cultures of different people all over the world.

American History students started off the year studying the Constitution. They learned about the elections and many issues of certain time periods. AP students held debates, read many articles, and worked hard in preparation for the AP exam.

Seniors concentrated on Government and Economics. Government classes studied the Constitution, zeroing in on Civil Rights. Economics classes learned the basics of Supply and Demand, as well as understanding our free enterprise system. Field trips for social studies students were popular.

In the Foreign Language Department this year, pupils learned about French, German, Latin, and Spanish cultures through the studies of grammar and literature. First and second-year students of French emphasized vocabulary and grammar, while third-year students studied Louis IX and Joan of Arc. Fourth-year students had skits, and AP French classes prepared for the exam reading fables by La Fontaine and a play by Racine.

German students had an interesting year with the study of basic German grammar and composers. They enlivened their days with many reports and skits in the German language.

In the Latin classes, the main emphasis was put on studying vocabulary for better performances on the SAT. In addition to grammar, students read works by Cicero and Virgil. The motto of the Latin classes is "Latin Lives!"

First and second level Spanish classes got down to basics studying verbs and vocabulary. Third-year students struggled with a variety of authors, as did fourth-level students. AP pupils studied specific works in preparation for the AP exam.

Fine and Practical art courses aided students in future career choices and gave them a chance to express their creativity. In typing class, students learned the skill of typing term papers, reports, and business letters.

Elementary Mechanical Drawing students used T-squares and triangles to tackle the fundamentals of architectural design. Third year students designed full scale model homes.

Elementary accounting students learned for the future, working hard to keep their spendings less than their budgets.

Beginning drama students learned how to demonstrate ideas by acting out scenes, while advanced drama prepared for the Senior play. Art pupils expressed their talents working in clay, ink and water colors.

The new choir director worked with the Lads and Lassies throughout the holiday season as they performed for competition and concerts. They also were busy preparing the 1983 musical, "Once Upon a Mattress." Band and Orchestra students worked fulltime on music for football games, concerts, and competition.

Students stretched with Jane Fonda and Diana Ross as they completed their requirements for Physical Education. Aerobics topped the list as a favorite elective, while Cardiovascular-Swimming and Fundamental Team Sports were required.

Besides the mandatory "thrill" of three semesters of P.E., Freshmen mingled with the birds and the bees in Health Education. They also learned the basics in first aid and CPR.

Drivers' Ed students, in hopes of becoming H.P.'s "Chief Cruisers", took their instructors' lives into their hands and into the front seat of school cars for required twelve hours behind-the-wheel experience.

THE PRIDE OF TEXAS

Scots go for gold, keep eyes on dreams

Left: Honest faces: Lee Orr and Craig Meek watch as their team advances.
Below: Stampede: Here come the 1982 Scots.

Upholding the Highland Park winning tradition this season, the 1982 Fighting Scots won ten of their twelve games and progressed to the second round of the state playoffs.

The Scots displayed great potential in the Spring during the annual Blue-Gold game. After much hard work in the Summer, the team was ready to begin the season. After a narrower than expected victory over the Mac Arthur Cardinals, the Scots faced the extremely boastful Sherman "Supermen" Bearcats. The 24-6 score proved that it is not "what you say, but how you play" that counts. For the next four weeks, the Scots were victorious, beating Duncanville 51-7, Mesquite 26-10, Lakeview 30-7, and Wilmer-Hutchins 28-0. Only two teams, Highland Park and North Mesquite, were still undefeated in district 10-5A, therefore the winner of this match-up would determine the probable district champion. In a hard fought game, Highland Park lost 13-20. The Scots bounced back from this defeat, winning the next three games against South Garland, Garland, and North Garland, with a point total of 126-0. A new U.I.L. rule allows that the district runner-up advance to the playoffs and this gave the Scots an opportunity to contend for the state championship title. Highland Park proved victorious against the Samuel Spartans, allowing them to face the Carter Cowboys, a match-up which would determine the Area champion. This game did not go well for the Scots as six turn overs greatly hampered any chance for victory. Statistically, the Scots appeared much better than the Cowboys, but the score was in favor of Carter, 24-21.

The 1982 team would like to thank the student body, the band, and the girls that decorated lockers for all the support and encouragement.

Awesome Scot defense electrifies challengers

The "Fighting H.P. Defense" put all doubts to rest by turning in an outstanding performance for 1982. The defense upheld the tradition of shutting opponents out and giving the offense the ball in good field position.

With an excellent corps of down linemen including Ellison Hurt, Richard Tuma, Phillip Worthen, and Robert Turner, the running attacks of opposing teams were shut down. In twelve games the defense allowed only seventy-eight points, while holding total first downs to 119. The linebackers aided not only the front four, but the secondary as well. Lead by Steve Todd at middle backer, the two outside backers Gabriel de la Garza and Henry Miller contributed to a total of nineteen interceptions, seventeen fumble recoveries, and an opponents pass percentage of only thirty-five.

Juniors aided the Scot secondary as Glen Evans. Todd Bright, Chuck Hutchison all started throughout the year under the guidance of senior Bryan Miller. Other seniors making valuable contributions were David Voekel, Tom Harrington, and Mike Blase. The secondary did an outstanding job by holding opponents to a total of 839 yards passing for the entire season.

The strength of the defense is not only shown in the low point-per-game average, but also in the high scores turned in by the offense week after week which were in part set up by the good field position given by the defense. All in all, the 1982 Scot Varsity Football Team played well enough to beat almost anyone, which is shown in their handsome 10-2 record.

Go for it: The Awesome defense raids the Skeeters.

Charge: Scot defense swarms offensive opponent.

Brain waves: Richard Tuma concentrates on the field.

Giant linemen, quick rushers bring honor

Scot tradition of a potent offense was continued again by the young men of the 1982 Varsity. Anchored by twelve Seniors, five Juniors, and one Sophomore, the loaded Scot attack could stun you from anywhere on the gridiron.

The workhorses up front this year were unusually big and overpowering. Solidly averaging 220 pounds a piece, they would pound stubborn defenses into submission or sweep open holes for swift Scot backs. On the strong side, there was Blair Oden at tight end, Hal Watson at guard, Charlie Davis and Lee Orr at tackle. The quick side included David Richards at guard, Gene Williams at tackle, and Brant Bernet at quick end. The center was Junior John Rutledge. Rusty Anderson was the utility back-up all the way across. Coach Bevers said, "All the talent came through for us, and they improved every week."

Running through the lanes of green opened by the line were a standout crop of H.P. backs. The leading rusher with almost 900 yards was Brian Glasscock, followed by the tandem back, Rod Jones with 815 yards.

King Hall, Eric Mays, and John Stollenwerck gained four yards every time they ran for a 672 yard total.

The Scots rambled for almost 3000 yards on the ground through '82.

The airways were filled this year by King Hall and John Stollenwerck. They completed sixty percent of their passes for almost 1300 yards and thirteen aerial scoring strikes. They loved to sling the ball to a brilliant Senior receiving corps.

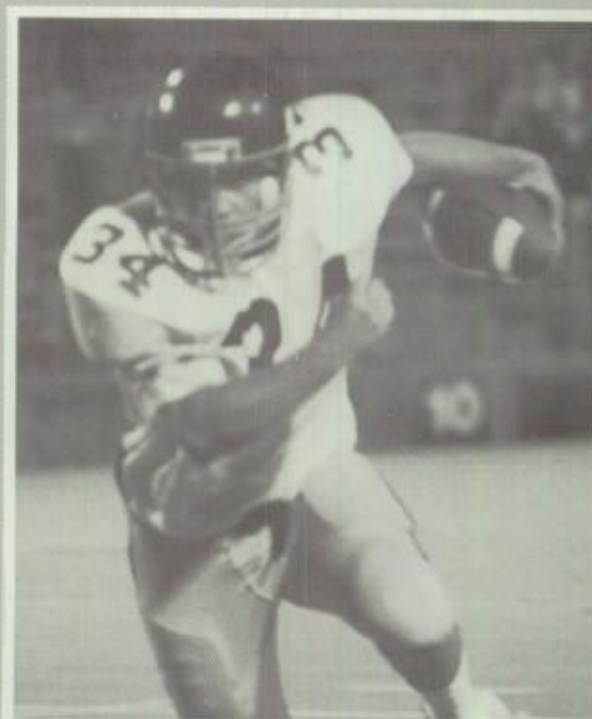

Flankers, Mark Pillsbury and Jody Tompson, as well as split ends Adam Cox and Mike Blase snagged all the pigskins in '82.

This offense was lauded with honors. First team All-District went to Glasscock, Watson, and Cox, as well as to the long kicking David Sweeney. Second team went to Jones and Richards. Honorably mentioned were Hall, Oden, and Williams. John Stollenwerck was named the 9-AAAAA Sophomore of the Year.

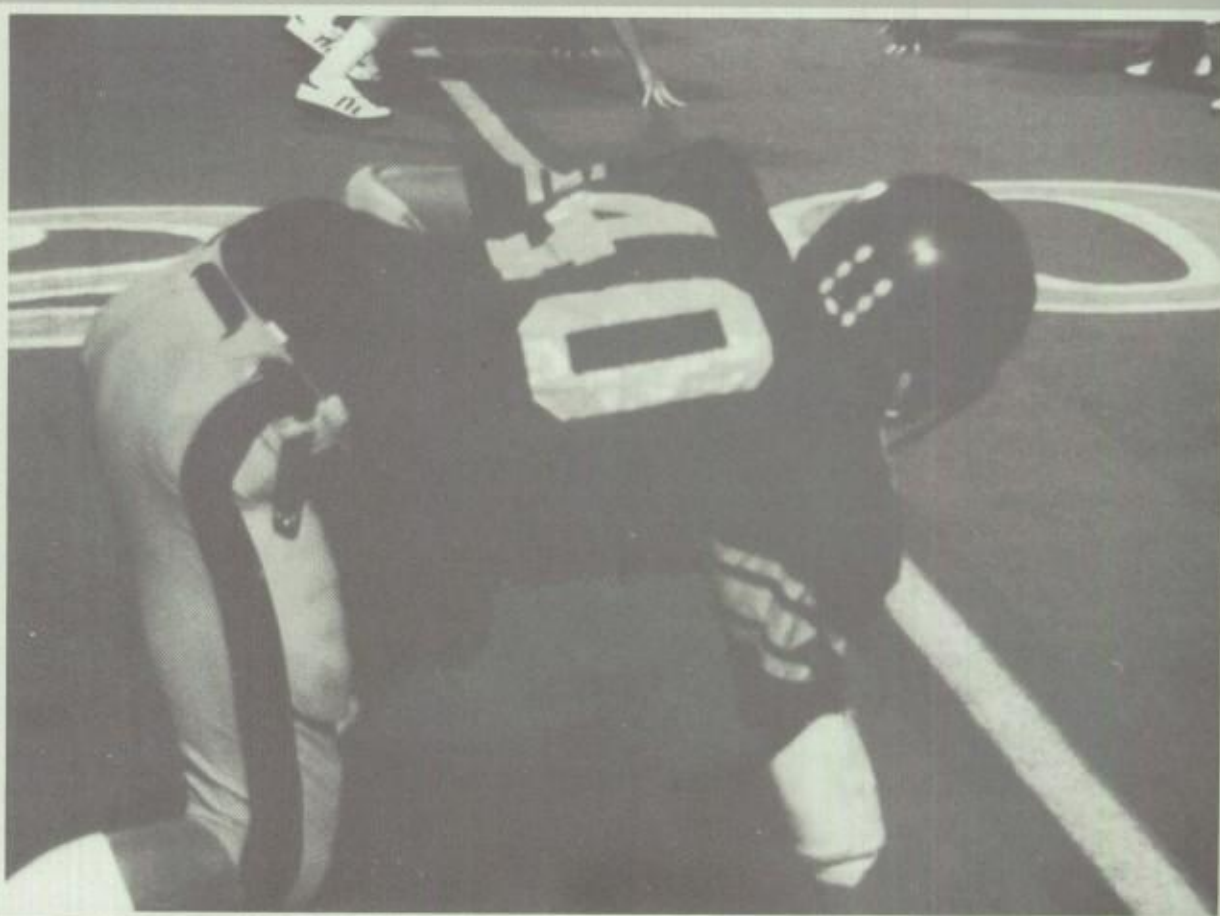

Coach Frank Bevers summed it all up by commenting, "When you average thirty points a game all year; you're just great!"

Superb defense carries JV Scots

The Highland Park junior varsity football team under the guidance of coaches Cecil Holmes, Orvil Jones, Ray Wadle, and Red Ellis attained a hard fought 6-3-1 season record.

The Scots opened their season with an impressive win over Irving MacArthur, 28-0. H.P. then trounced Sherman 30-0, and then battled to a 6-6 tie with Duncanville. In their first district game, the Scots fell to Mesquite 22-6. Yet, the Scots bounced back for a 13-6 victory over Lakeview, and continued their winning ways with a 28-7 thrashing of Wilmer Hutchins. The North Mesquite Stallions then handed the J.V. Scots their 2nd district loss, 22-6. In their last three games, H.P. took two victories against South Garland and then finally against North Garland, while dropping one to Garland.

Carrying the J.V. Scots this year was their superb defense, which yielded only 84 points the entire season, the lowest total in twenty years. Defensive leaders were Matt Johnston, Pat Becker, Bill Clements, Steve Anderson, and James Equivel, who led in interceptions. Sophomore Robert Mayes directed the Scot attack as Quarterback. Significant contributions were made by running backs Lee Blaylock and John Presley, being helped by the offensive line of Fred Vehon, Tom Nash, Mitch Johnston, Ernie Williamson, Kevin Renner, and Charles Zambori. Special teams were led by punter-kicker Wayne Clements.

Coach Cecil Holmes expressed his satisfaction with this J.V. team commenting, "We were pleased with the overall performance of our team. This team gave a solid effort every time we went on the field."

Injuries make Frosh season disappointing

Under the leadership of head coach Ronnie Van Hooser and assistants, Al Hawes and Tim Marzola, the Highland Park Freshman Football Team had a disappointing season. The "A" team closed the year with a 1-8-1 record and the "B" team finished with a mark of 1-9.

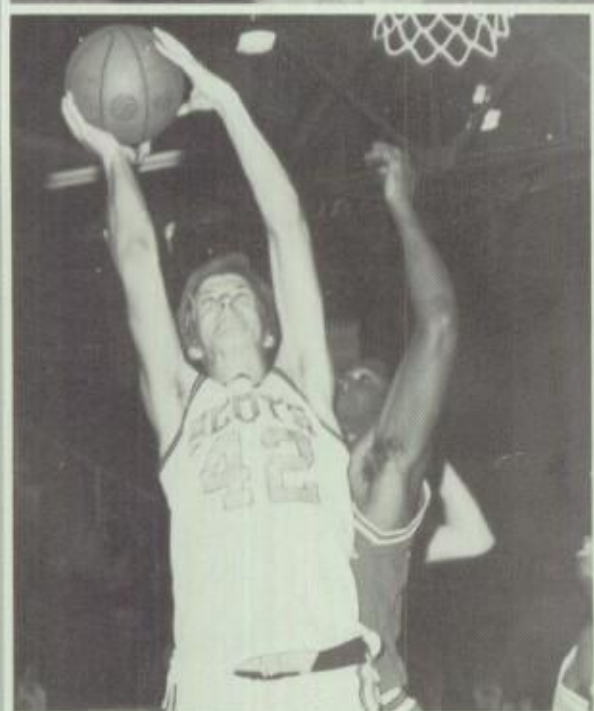

The team was constantly plagued with injuries. Coach Van Hooser never had his intended starting lineup healthy. The Freshmen captains were Clay Sumner, Doug Caudle, Philip Beard, and Mark Stevenson. Outstanding players for the Scots were Henry Ochel, Philip Beard, Josh Theodore, John Blaylock, Doug Caudle, Clay Sumner, Bard Hoover, Scott Rumley, and Clark Kennington.

Awesome! The 1982-1983 Varsity Basketball players are proud of a winning season. Coach Bo Snowden and assistant Coach Tom Shelton shaped the roundballers into an outstanding team. Under the student leadership of Dave Reichert, Scott Shelton, and John Vandermeer, the Scots were prepared to face a challenging season. The team consisted of seven seniors, six juniors, and five sophomores. "Vandy" showed excellent technique with his jamming style and Dave held his title of top scorer.

Stephen White showed tremendous potential as a soph being a regular on the court. The team as a whole played a perfect season.

Scots perform well in Austin tournament play

Scot roundballers posted another impressive season, playing some of the better teams in the state. In pre-season action, the Scotties trounced the undefeated St. Marks and fared well in both the Austin and Lions Club Tournaments.

The Scots paced the first half of district play winning their first six games. Successive defeats to Wilmer-Hutchins, North Mesquite, and Lakeview Centennial deflated Scot hopes of a banner year.

Leading scorers for the team included captain Dave Reichert, captain John Vandermeer, and senior guard Bart Showalter. Other outstanding players included captain Scott Shelton, seniors Stuart McIlyar, Ken Brown, and Baron Eliason; junior Mike Lucas, and sophomore Stephen White.

The JV Basketball team played consistently well throughout the season. Consistent starters included Glen Mack, Malcolm Showalter, David Humann, Tie Sosnowski, and Chuck Peters.

The freshman "Blue" team worked hard under Coach Wadle, losing only to Garland and Mesquite. Leaders of the team were Craig Brown, Matt Baynam, Lee Grable and John Isakson. Coach Van Hooser's "Gold" team faired even better, finishing over 500. Leader included Scott Broch, Lex Matthews and Blaise Gormley.

CROSS COUNTRY

Three veterans lead runners through season.

For the Boys' cross country team, 1982 was a year that held several setbacks. From the beginning, things seemed grim as there were only three returning runners and much previous talent had been lost due to graduation. The boys also encountered a disagreement with the school faculty which dampened some spirit.

The boys ran well throughout their season though, and placed second in several meets. Senior Scott Durham provided the team with leadership as did Brent Pogue. Although no HP runners were qualified to move on past the District meet, the boys had a good season.

Hours spent at White Rock Lake for daily workouts proved valuable as the girl's Cross Country team, under the guidance of Coach Jim Mouser, returned home with the State title.

The Lady runners devastated every team they came up against to remain undefeated, even throughout the State meet. Running on the varsity team were senior captain Wendy Irwin, juniors Jeannie Smith, Michele Medlock, sophomores Libby and Katy Lumpkin,

Hard workers rewarded as State champs and freshman Julie Soukup and Crystal McGuire.

At the State meet in Georgetown, Wendy Irwin led the Scots with a second place finish in a time 11:09, two seconds faster than last year.

Libby Lumpkin finished ninth, Crystal McGuire finished, 16th, Jeannie Smith 18th, Michele Medlock and Julie Soukup ran up next with 41st, and 47th. Kathy Lumpkin finished up as the Scot's seventh person in 54th.

Obviously, the hard work put in was well worth the effort. Next year will hopefully bring the Scots a State title for the third time, even though senior Wendy Irwin won't be present to run.

Volleyballers spike district, expand season

The 1982 Scot volleyballers had the best season ever. Under the leadership of varsity captains Libby Bernet and Julie Branch, the team was led to the Bi-district play-offs.

The biggest advantage to the varsity's success this year was the team unity and the overall good attitude. During the season, the Scots defeated several teams in which they came back from being behind 11 to 0. The turning point of the first winning season in at least four years was the big win over the South Garland Colonels, the 1981 district champs. North Mesquite was the Scots last rival to defeat; in a clinch they were successful. The fan support this year was fantastic and the gym was even filled a couple of times. Coach Simmons commented, "I feel that this year is just the foundation to many more winning seasons." Elizabeth Schooler, a talented athlete, served as a co-captain for the junior varsity until she was moved up to varsity during the middle of the season.

Captain Jenny Bernet led the junior varsity to a very impressive season. Two standouts on the J.V. were Tiffany Slayton and Polly Simpkins. "The Middle School volleyball program has certainly helped in that the girls are getting some experience," said Coach Simmons.

Three girls earned All-district recognition. Julie Branch, named to the honorable mention team as a junior, was chosen to the district 10-5A second team. Two other members made the All-district teams. Sophomore Sharon Bradley was chosen for second team and junior Stefani Miller was named to the honorable mention team.

New sport proves successful at Hi Park

Few times in sports does one witness the birth of a program destined for success. Highland Park High has seen such a beginning, in the start of the H.P. Wrestling Team.

28 young men are involved in the sport and 17 of those are on the Varsity level. The ninth graders are involved in a feeder program of matches and the rest of the wrestlers have competed in the many varsity events.

These scrapping Scots have travelled to the R.L. Turner Tourney, Lewisville Tournament, and had a fine showing in the Trinity Tourney in a field of seasoned squads. February 4th and 5th they competed in the Richardson-Dallas Regional Tournament.

Shane Whittington has led the Scot attack with the help of Alex Zocchi and Rob Russell.

Coach Tim Marzuola, the highly successful head coach of MacArthur High, the 1981 State champs, came to HPHS this year to start a winning program, and commented, "By the time the Freshmen graduate, they should be one of the top teams in the State."

Golf boys, girls putt, practice, drive to district

The 1982-1983 school year looks to be the great one for the Highland Park golf teams. The teams show terrific potential to compete for the district honors.

During the fall season the boys played three tournaments. In the Irving School Varsity Tournament the Scots drivers came in fourth. In early November in the West Fort Worth Public Schools Invitational at Ridglea Country Club, the Scots placed high in the top ten.

The girls Varsity squad, coming off a great 81-82 season, looks to state. The girls show a tremendous amount of promise and drive to win state. From the layman's eye, the golf teams of Highland Park show great potential in making this year one to remember.

Scot soccer stuns district, shoots for state

Early in 1983, the renowned Scot kickers embarked on what proved to be one of their best seasons ever. Remarkably, the team remains unbeaten and unscored upon through the first half of the season and is the heavy favorite to win District. Coach Dave Fricke described the team as one of the best he has ever seen. The '83 squad possesses a unique mixture of high-powered offense and bone-crushing defense that form a near-unbeatable blend.

The dangerous Scot forwards include Seniors Michael "Buff" Segrest and Tom "Skills" Stewart, and Juniors James "Space" Faulk, Jim "Hit-Man" Hudson, and Tim "Bolting" Marron. The crafty halfbacks running the midfield are Seniors Tim "Scooter" Hook and Brett "Rat-Face" Robertson, Junior John "Skippy" Ware, and Sophomores Payne "C.T." Lancaster, David Thompson, and Steve "Bagel" Stevens. The stealthy defenders at fullback include Seniors Walter "Francis" Sosnowski and Mark "Crip" Stuart, Juniors Stephen

"Slide-Tackle" Jennings and Joey "Yokey" Carlton, and Sophomore Alan McConnell. The goal itself is staunchly guarded by All-District Keeper John "Yaski-Banzai" Patterson. The J.V. Scots, after the addition of SMU graduate Doug Miller as coach, have played consistently well.

For years, Highland Park soccer has been an unnoticed, somewhat independent sport. However, this year marked the admittance of the game to the jurisdiction of the infallible U.I.L. The 1983 Scot team, sporting the best record in its history, will thus have a good shot at the first ever State Soccer Championship.

Soccer stars set up shots score for state

The Scot soccer women finished their seasons at the top of the district, with impressive varsity wins over Lakeview Centennial, Mesquite, and the Episcopal School of Dallas, the 1983 Scots showed that they had the determination, skill, and finesse to beat even the fiercest competitor. Varsity standouts included senior captains Michele Coker and Missy Salomon, junior Emily Christian and sophomore Sharon Bradley.

Under the leadership of sophomore captains Lee Roberts and Tiffany Slayton, the junior varsity soccer dames had a successful season. Coach Mindy Simmons led both her teams through winning seasons with many rigorous 7:30 a.m. practices, during which the girls built up their skills in order to sustain their traditional winning ways.

Smallballers crack the wood during spring

As the air gets warmer and the sun shines bright, the gloves and the wood crack with an echo that calls the rites of spring — BASEBALL!

At the corner of Westchester and Lovers, the Highland Park version of baseball fever swung into action in early January. Coach Al Hawes will guide the Scots for the third year and stalwarts Bart Showalter and Ward Wilson hope to pitch the club to championships. Smallballers Allen Williams, John Poston, David Vandecar, and Craig Sessions will provide power at the plate and fleetness in the field. Football seniors Jody Tompson, King Hall, and Henry Miller also hope to make another program successful.

The Slingin' Scots open the campaign on March 1st against T.J. and their district race on March 22 against Mesquite. H.P. will probably battle Lakeview for the district crown and playoffs loom in early May.

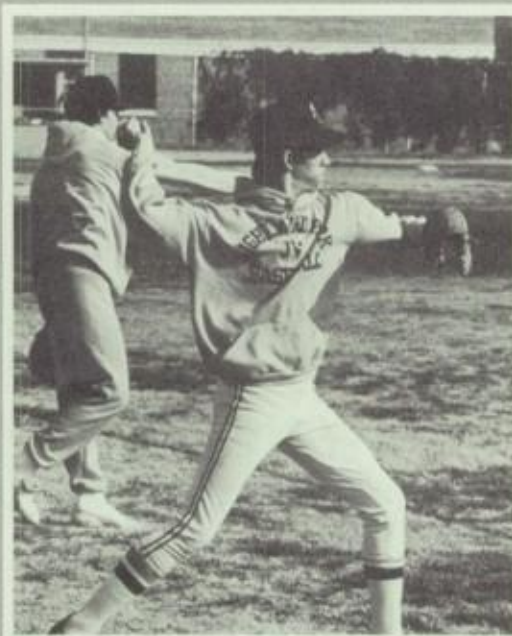

Senior outfielder Jody Tompson feels, "If we get pitching and clutch hits, we'll compete with anyone."

It should be fun to see!

HP White Hope has potential in track and field

HP's Great White Hope worked hard, competing in numerous meets in the Spring of 1983. The guys' first meet for the season was held in Richardson at the end of February. Those runners receiving recognition for outstanding performances were Adam Cox in the long jump; David Richards for the discus and shot put, Jack Mayfield in the hurdles, Monte Snyder for the 200, and an outstanding 1600 meter relay team of Monte Snyder, Mike Blase, Jack Mayfield, and Duncan Bremner. These diligent, dedicated men showed much potential for an exciting and successful season.

Girl tracksters leap into action with a big bang

HP's women runners continued the tradition of awesome wins in the Spring of 1983. Coach Mouser led the team to the Richardson track meet early in the season where the runners came home with a first place trophy. Crystal McGuire, Libby Lumpkin, and Michele Medlock ran well in the two mile run while 440 relay girls, Anne Worsham, Stacy Jacobs, and Eugenia Skidmore and Michele Taylor, were successful in their event. Other outstanding girls were Wendy Irwin, Lu Ann Staley, Julie Soukup, Jeanne Smith and Kelty Barber.

TENNIS

Another year of Highland Park Tennis graced the courts in '82. Captain Clay Christopher and Erin Alexander led the squad to an unblemished district 9-5A title, and a third place Regional mark. The netting Scots then finished fifteenth at the state tournament in Plano.

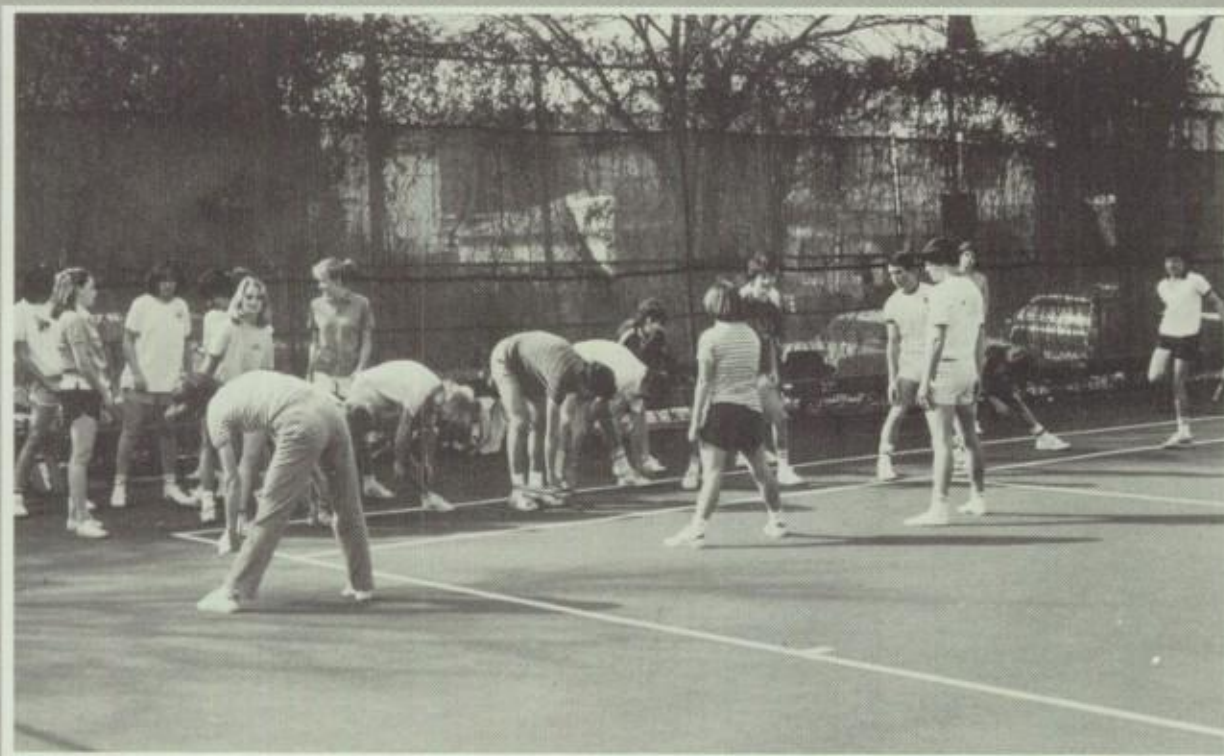

The top singles players were Christopher, Michael Taylor, Chris Freeman and Leigh Bywaters. The doubles duos were Christopher/Taylor and Alexander/Bywaters. The Scots coaching mentor was Kay Kyle.

The construction of the new Seay Tennis Complex is the gleam of all tennis team eyes, relishing the warm indoor matches.

Scot gymnasts display skills on bars, vault

The gymnastics team once again displayed skill and promise in this season's competition. The boys, led by he-man Andrew Bremner, child prodigy Adam Foreman, and captain Eric Coln, competed in rings, horizontal bar, parallel bars, pommel horse, vault, and floor exercise. Upcoming talents on the boys' squad include freshmen Richard Buntin, Dusty Rogers, and Lance Wilson.

And oh, those women gymnasts! Anna Hampton, Jennifer Woodcook, Sonya Roark, and captains Julie Dolan and Francie Stevens led team competition in floor exercise, vault, bars, and beam.

The girls confidently remark that, with all their competitive experience and their large muscles, they have the potential to be the best H.P. team ever. Another especially bright spot in the team is the freshmen members, whose prowess is simply scary. In a couple of years, the H.P. Gymnastics Team will be totally awesome.

Price, Glass lead Blue wave to regionals

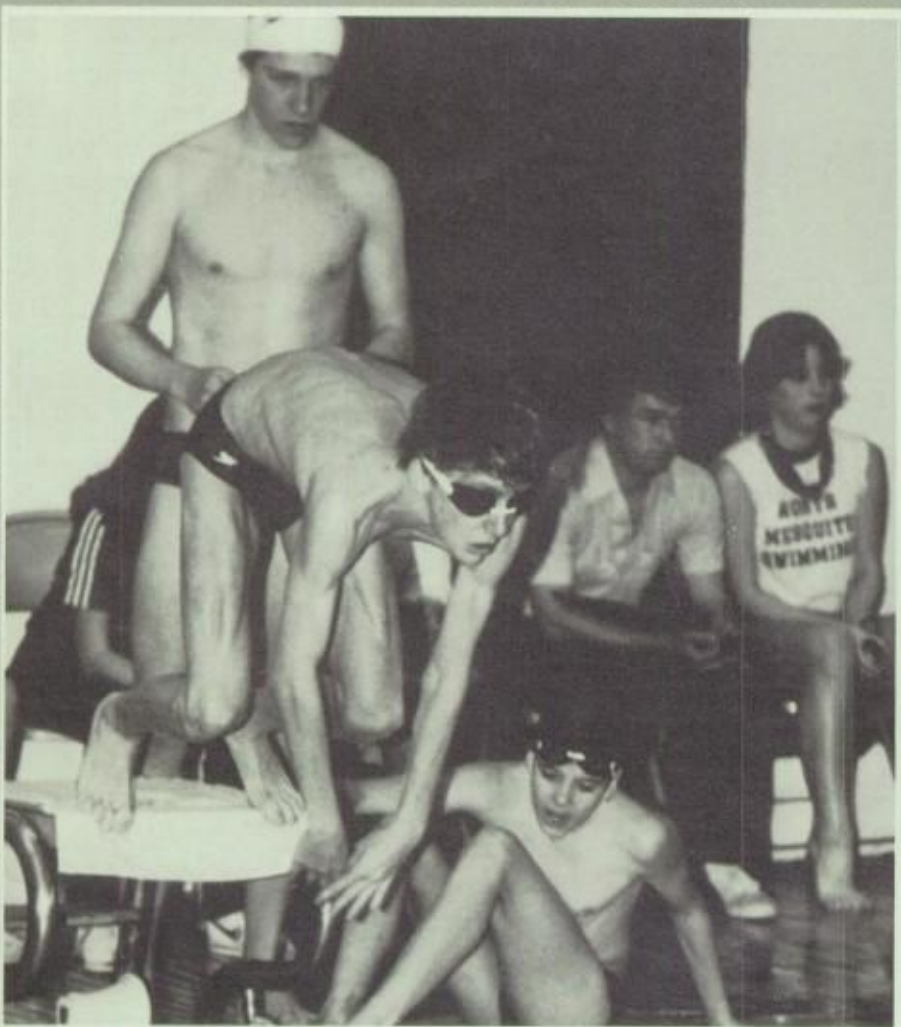

As usual, the HP Blue Wave proved their talent in the 1982-83 season, despite the lack of recognition they unquestionably deserved. The swim team was led by captains Mike Glass and Jennifer Price to the district title which has become almost routine for Highland Park swimmers. The title was taken by a 12 point margin in the boys' meet over South Garland, while the girls maintained a 58 point lead over second place South Garland.

After Regionals, successful winners from the Scot team moved on to state March 18 and 19. "In all" commented Sorrells, "they all did outstanding."

ORGANIZATIONS

'82-'83 Council sponsors dance creates Clan

Led by Phillip Worthen, President; Dave Reichert, Vice-President; Kim Newsom, Secretary; Dana Wertheimer, Treasurer; and Kathleen White, Parliamentarian, the 1982-1983 Student Council sponsored several school events.

The Executive Committee of the Student Council included the officers as well as six appointed seniors. These seniors were Margaret Boyle, John Hamlin, Margaret Shelmire, Warren Smith, Richard Tuma and Hal Watson.

Dana Wertheimer took charge of the football caravans while Kim Newsom organized The Clan, selling more ad space than ever. Senior Chris Cameron designed the cover of The Clan.

The annual Howdy Week ended with the traditional Howdy Dance, at which the Super Scot spies as well as the friendliest boy and girl from each grade were announced.

The Homecoming Dance, held on Saturday, October 23, was themed "Yesterday." Mary Sowell was named Queen and the couples danced to the music of Refugee. Mums were not sold because of the lack of buyers in the last few years.

For the second year in a row, the Student Council Supershow was cancelled as a result of the low number of acts. However, the Student Council did sponsor a cafeteria cleanup program and the varsity cheerleader tryouts, held for the first time in the fall.

Sponsors RuthAnne Vineyard and Cecil Holmes, again this year contributed a lot of time and effort in coordinating the Student Council activities.

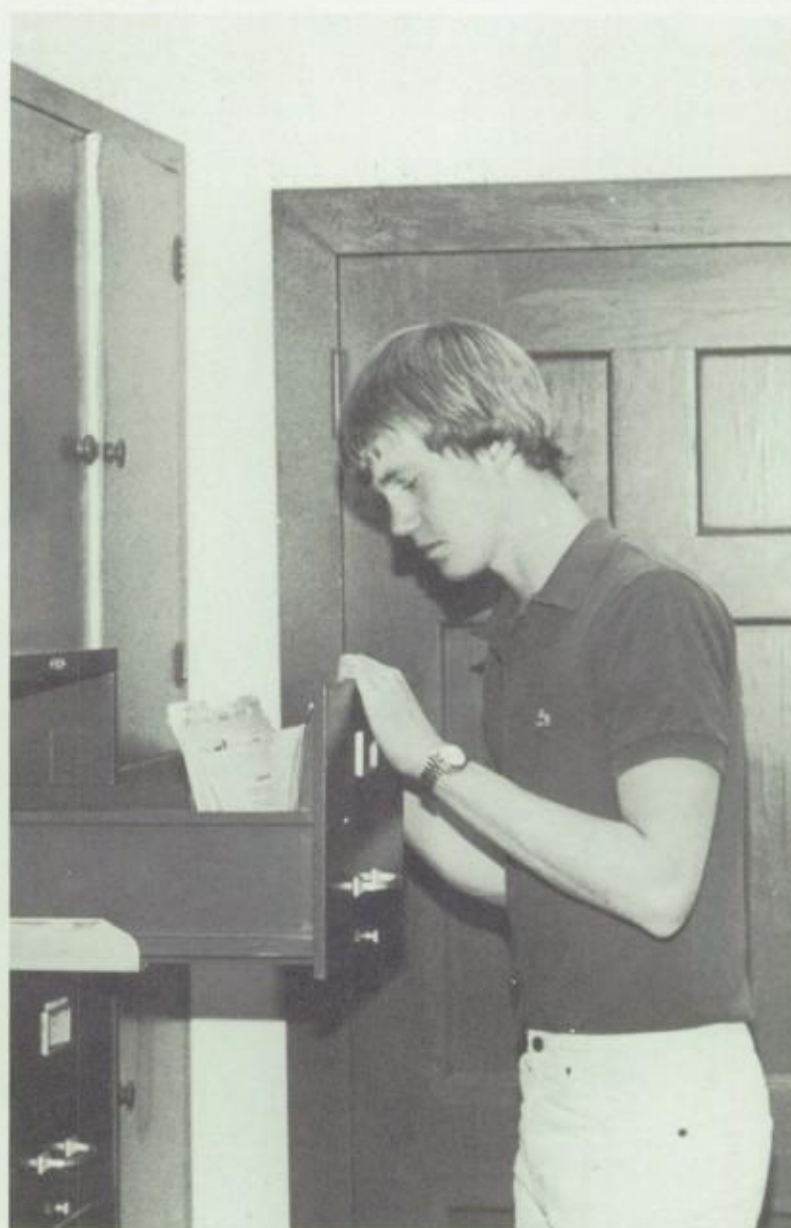

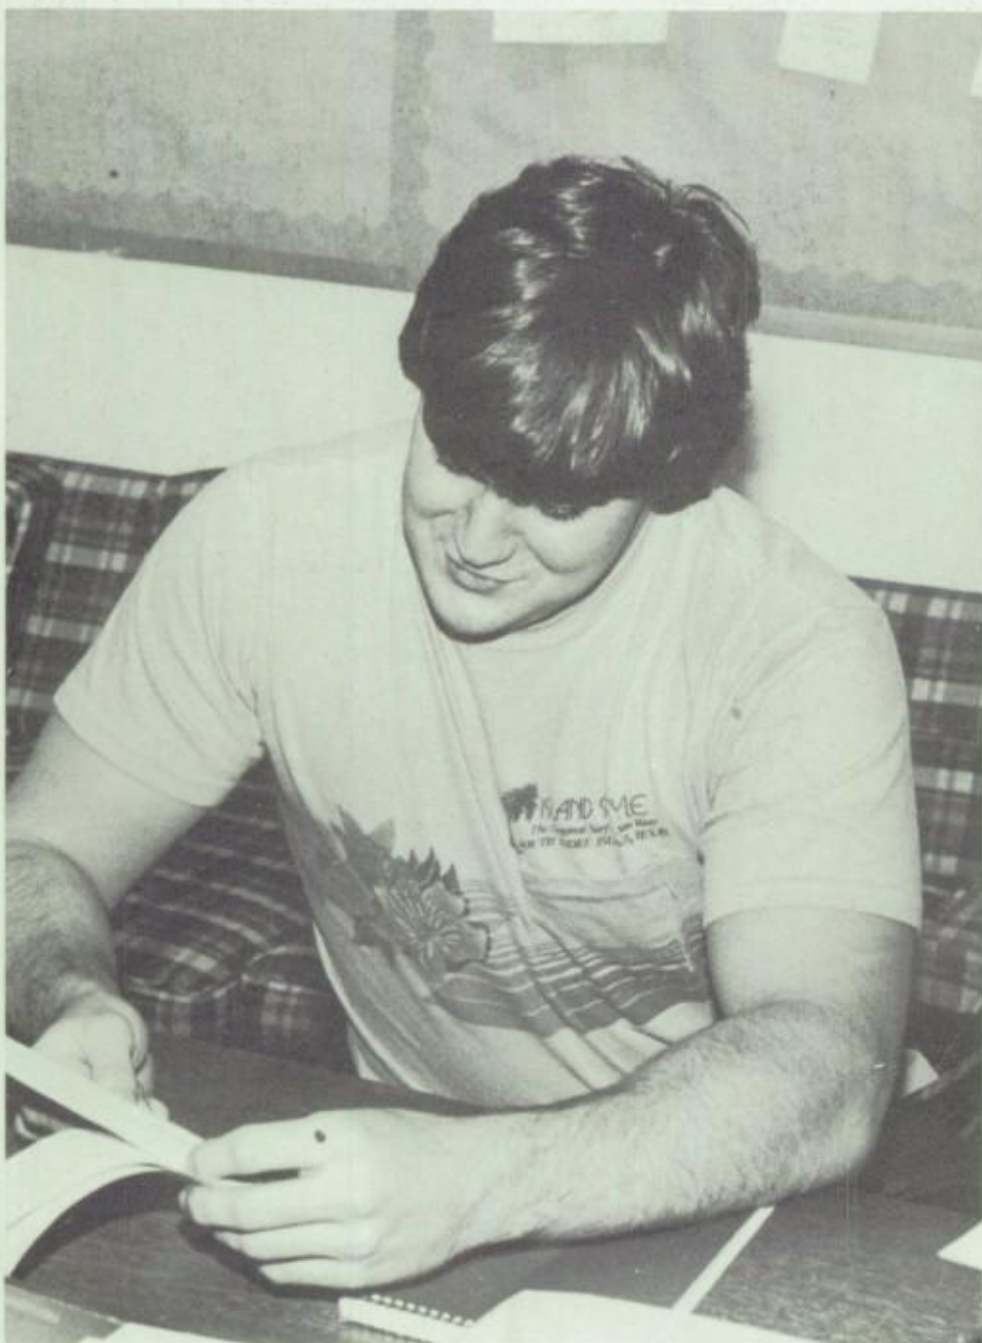

Lend me your ears: Student Council members are enthralled with President Worthen's business.

Dedicated staff plans superior '83 Highlander

Tricia Bell and Jennifer Simmons, co-editors of the sixtieth edition of the Highlander, began the year by planning a flawless book. These hard working young women chose a theme applicable to all students at Highland Park High School. Tricia and Jennifer made the first of many major decisions early in the year when they chose the ladder design for the cover.

Under the leadership of the editors, Katherine Lynch and Jennifer New, associate co-editors, designed the faculty and underclassmen sections. Katherine and Jennifer will advance to the positions of co-editors for the 1984 Highlander.

On the business side of the masterpiece, Mary Margaret Lynch and Catharine Hoover presided. They began the year by selling ads exclusively to Seniors' parents. After all parents had been contacted, the co-business managers opened the sale of ads to the general public. Mary Margaret and Catharine also led the selling of the 1983 Highlander itself.

Miss Katherine Carpenter, the year-book sponsor gladly watched over the growth of the 1983 Highlander but allowed the editors and business managers to establish the prize publication.

Krebs edits HP's prestigious school paper

During the '82-'83 year of the Bagpipe Kyle Krebs was co-editor with Bruce Bradley for the first semester and Charlotte Martin for the second. Along with co-business managers Carolyn Brown and Cathy Clements, the newspaper staff covered many of the school's events.

Besides the co-editors, other students contributed to the editorial staff. Seniors Jim Carrao and Dana Luby served as news editors, while junior Lendy Leggett served as their assistant. Seniors Lisa Crook and Charlotte Martin headed the feature pages with senior Alice Toole as their assistant. The sports pages were under the direction of senior Cole Ramey with Bobby Mighell serving as assistant. Other staff members also contributed to the editorial staff.

Besides the co-business managers, several students sold ads. Senior Janet Peterson kept the books as comptroller. Mrs. Reyburn Myers served as the Bagpipe sponsor while Miss Gladys Bradshaw helped with the business matters.

The Bagpipe printed eight issues during the school year. The Christmas issue was presented to the students as a gift. The issue was printed in red and green to put everyone in the Christmas spirit. Overall, the Bagpipe had a successful year in both production and sales.

Tartan boards create superior periodical

After hours of careful planning and hard work, Tartan literary and art board members produced a successful magazine. The literary board, sponsored by Ms. Dorris Warburton, spent each Thursday afternoon evaluating and selecting works of poetry and prose submitted by the Student body to be presented in the magazine.

Artwork was done only for the works of those authors who requested an accompanying illustration. Ms. Paula Duckworth and Mr. James Carter headed the art section.

Of course, raising money was a large part of the work involved in publishing this non-school funded magazine. Literary board members held two bakesales, and art board members contributed the revenue from their art sale. The literary board also sent patron letters to parents in quest of support.

The 1983 Tartan chairman was junior Josh Larson. Co-chairmen were Scott Roby and Dee Dockery, and secretaries were Kathy Sturgeon and Anne Porch. Kim Coffin served as treasurer. Mary Haviland acted as art board president.

Hamlin presides over enormous Honor Society

Representatives of knowledge: NHS officers Elise Pettinger, John Hamlin, Cecilia Yu, and Scott Shelton work in the lab.

Total membership of The National Honor Society reached record numbers this year. Those members included 40 students initiated as Juniors in the Spring of 1982 and 22 Seniors initiated in the Fall of 1982. Seniors were also admitted during the Spring of 1983.

Requirements for membership in NHS include two consecutive semesters as upperclassmen of at least a 7.0 grade point average. Also considered in admissions are the teachers' evaluations of the students for scholarship, service, character, and leadership capabilities.

Officers, elected in the Spring of 1982 were: President, John Hamlin; Vice-President, Scott Shelton; Secretary, Elise Pettinger; and Treasurer, Cecilia Yu. Miss Orr is in charge of the Highland Park NHS.

DECA

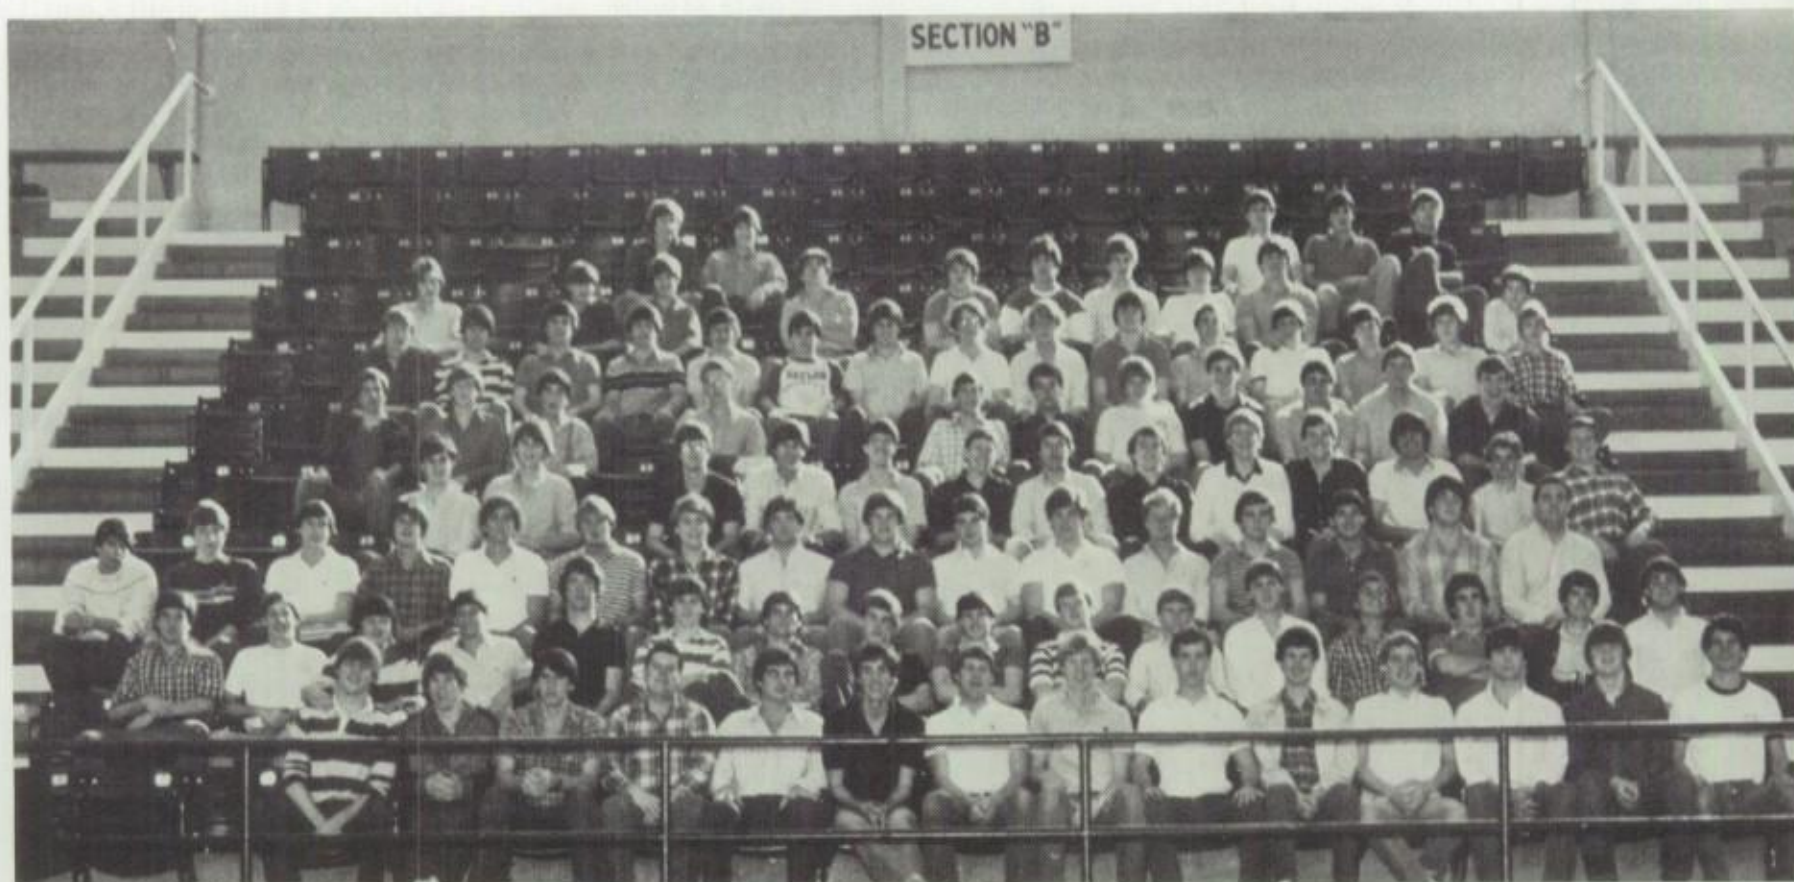

Career-minded students work hard in DECA

The Distributive Education Program at Highland Park gives many career-minded students the opportunity for actual job training. Most students worked at offices and retail stores around North Dallas.

Mrs. Sheree Davis, the club sponsor, helped students with any problems they encountered and in club projects. The students sold pennants and buttons this fall to help raise money and school spirit.

The DECA officers who led the club this year were: President, Nolan Gregory; Vice-President, Angie Robles; Parliamentarian, David Long; treasurer, Cathy Slaughter; Reporter, Marilyn Miller.

Dickerson directs boys' 1982-83 Christian club

The boys' chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes carried out a rewarding year of study and fellowship and maintained the largest membership in the United States. Due to the large membership, the club was split into two divisions; one composed of freshmen and sophomores and the other made up of juniors and seniors.

Bob Breunig and Scott Smith visited and spoke about their relationship with Christ. FCA'ers also watched football highlight films and attended monthly breakfasts.

Girls' FCA

Christian girls study Bible, listen to friends

Girls' Fellowship of Christian Athletes took a new approach to their meetings this year by engaging in small group Bible studies. The intention was to help girls learn to incorporate Christ into their everyday lives. Several speakers visited them throughout the year sharing their Christian talk. With the help of sponsor Mindy Simmons, President Susan Martin led the club along with her officers: Melissa Daniels, Vice-President; Kely Barber, Secretary; Nancy Truitt, Treasurer; and Ellen Holman and Stefani Miller, Chaplains. The group also participated in various outside activities such as charity projects for the underprivileged, outside Bible studies, and breakfasts with the boys F.C.A.

Pep committee gains support to back Scots

The 1982-1983 Spirit Committee, headed by Robbie McClung, Lendy Leggett, and Jennifer Haschke, did a superb job sustaining school spirit. Members took lemonade and watermelon to the hard-practicing football team and sold bumper stickers. During the year, each Thursday evening was devoted to elaborately decorating the gym for Friday's pep rally. During those pep rallies, members wore new, more fashionable attire than in previous years.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Bardo and Mrs. Sargent, the Spirit Committee had an improved degree of participation and dedication from its members.

Key Club gains by fundraisers

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Jimmy Lee and Mr. Jim Castllaw, the Key Club had a great year maintaining its tradition of excellence. They organized various activities to raise money for charity benefits.

Key Club

President Milledge Hart led the club with the help of Vice President Lloyd Denman, Secretary Tom Harrington, and Treasurer Dee Dockery. Getting off to a great start in October, the group held a car wash one Saturday, raising three hundred and fifty dollars. In a garage sale to finance the annual Key Club dance, the group made over a thousand dollars. The Christmas formal took place on December 11 and members and their guests danced to the music of the Ultimate Force at the Regent Hotel.

The group, closely associated with the adult Kiwanis club, played the men in an interesting game of basketball.

Wendy Smith won third in original oratory at Newman Smith, second at Sam Houston H.S., and will be advancing to state this year. A duet team of Camille Coch and Julie Mulyan won semifinals and Rich Owens won finals in radio announcing. The team members have been working hard but feel that they need more members. Mrs. Loyola says that anyone can be on the team with a little bit of hard work.

Hi-Lite girls make friends throughout HP

The Hi-Lites club began the year with the annual Big Sister/Little Sister picnic at Goar Park on August 22. This event was designed to allow freshman girls to meet other girls at high school. On October 31 the Mother-Daughter tea was held at the home of Elizabeth Murray.

Each year the club sponsors two dances. "Double Trouble" was the theme of the first event on November 12. Members and their dates came dressed in nightwear for the pajama party held in late January.

The club met every other Wednesday during club period. The club planned many service projects including Christmas stockings, a food drive, and Easter baskets.

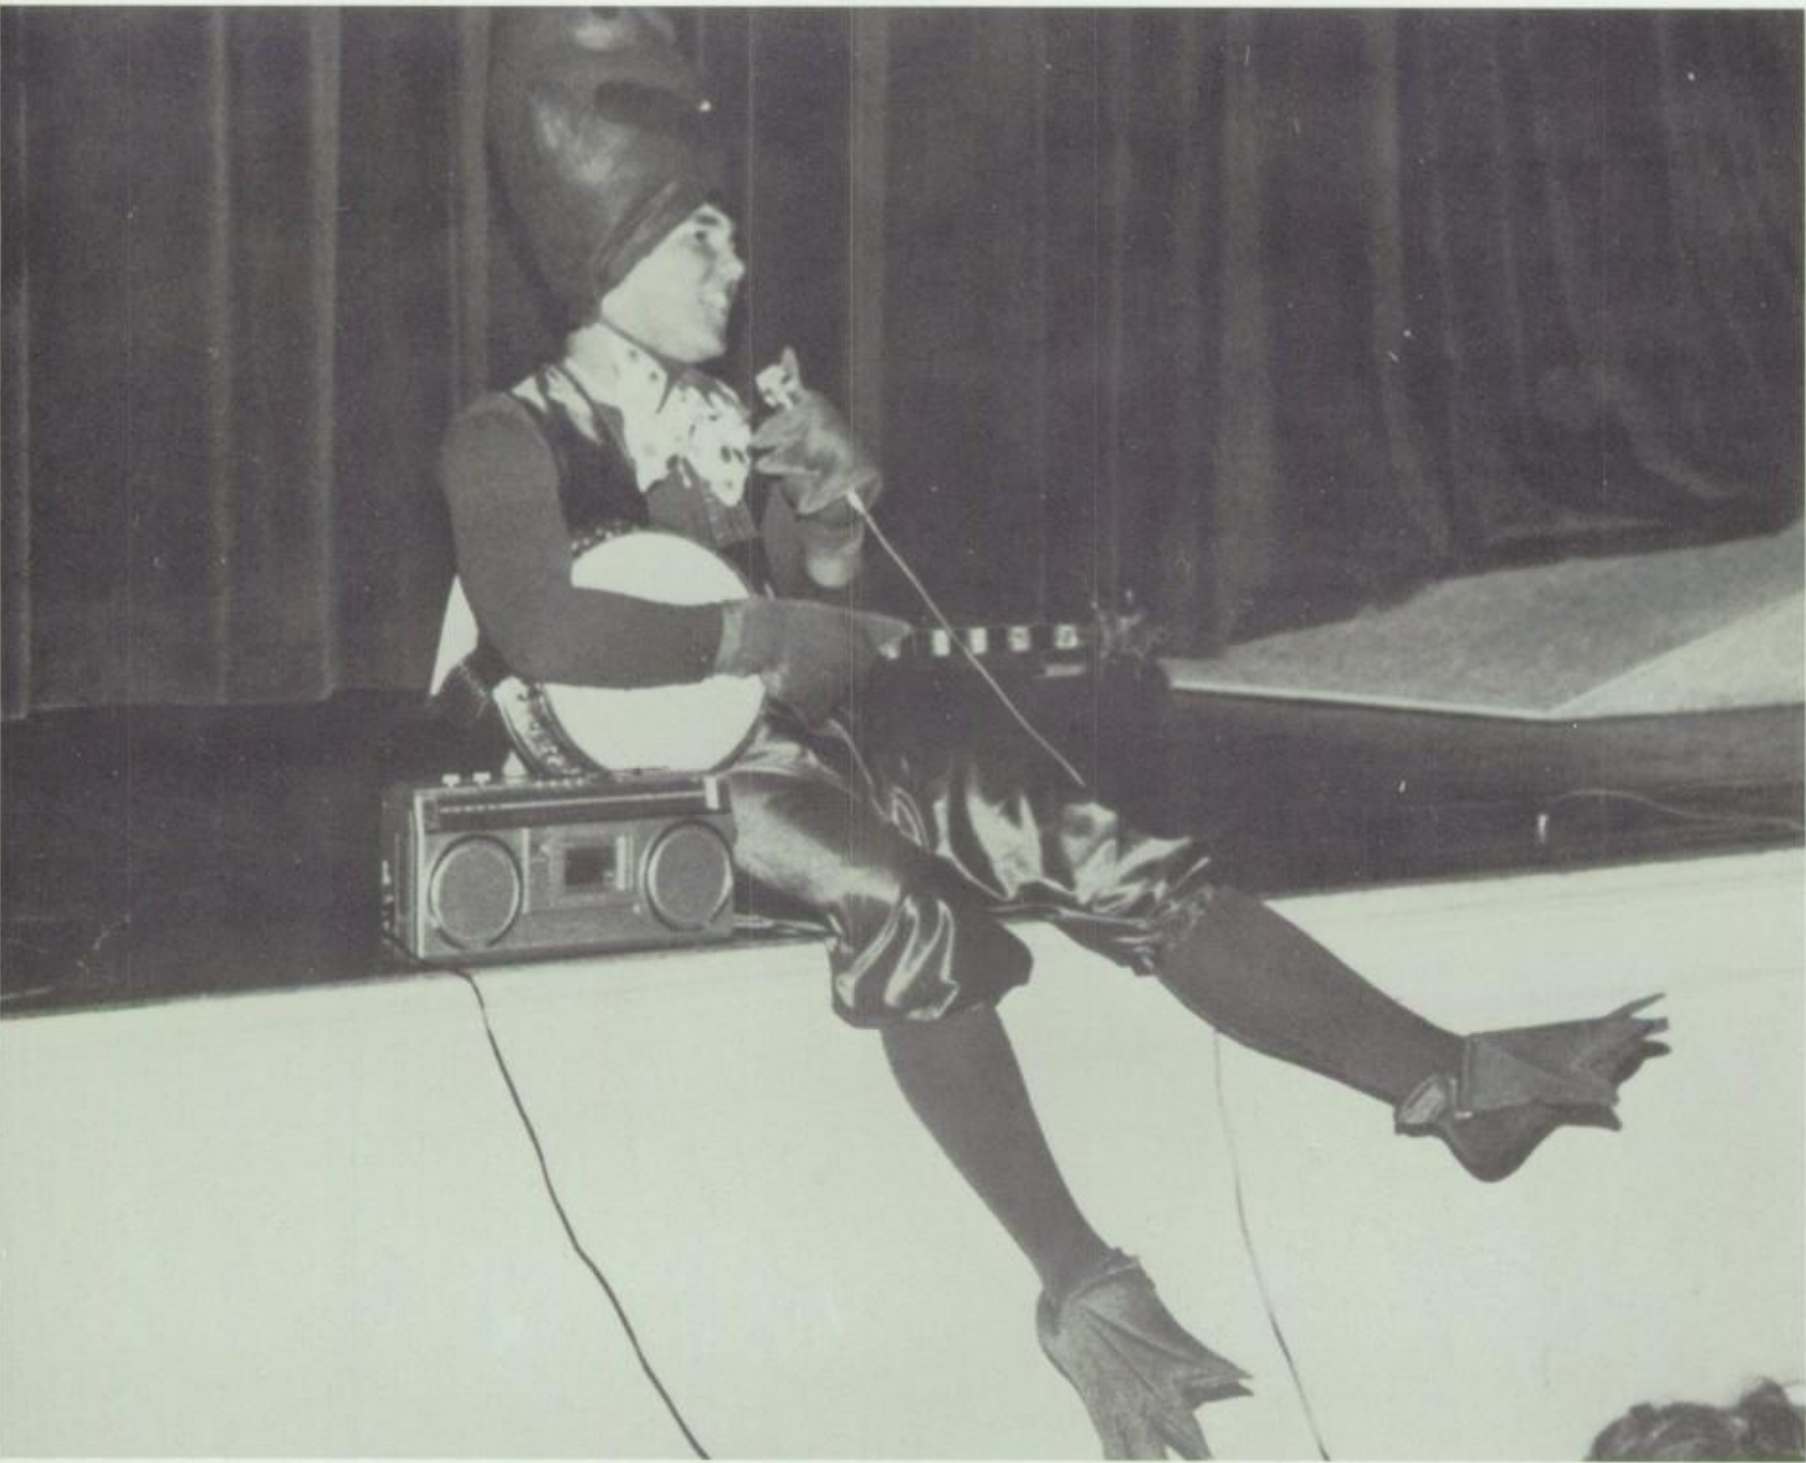

Lisa Reed led the all-girl club in 1982-83. Other officers included Cindy Kennedy, vice-president; Gretchen Cowden, secretary; Elizabeth New, treasurer; Allyson Smith, Social Chairman; Julie Branch, friendship; Diana Woods, hospitality; Debbie McCullough, program; Kaysie Graham, historian; Kathy Carpenter, publicity; Elizabeth Murray, Red Cross; and Shelley Spies, social climber. Lads, Lassies exhibit talent for cable TV

Under new choir director Frank Sargent, the 1982-83 Lads and Lassies choir got off to a good start by increasing its membership.

This year's officers were Stephanie Jackson, President; John McDaniel, Vice-President; Lucy Meyers, Recording Secretary; Courtney Johnson, Corresponding Secretary; Charlotte Martin, Historian; Cathryn Dibble, Business Manager; Sharon Krueger, Assistant Business Manager; Kathy Hempel and Robbie McClung, Librarians; and Bobby Higginbotham, Riser Chairman.

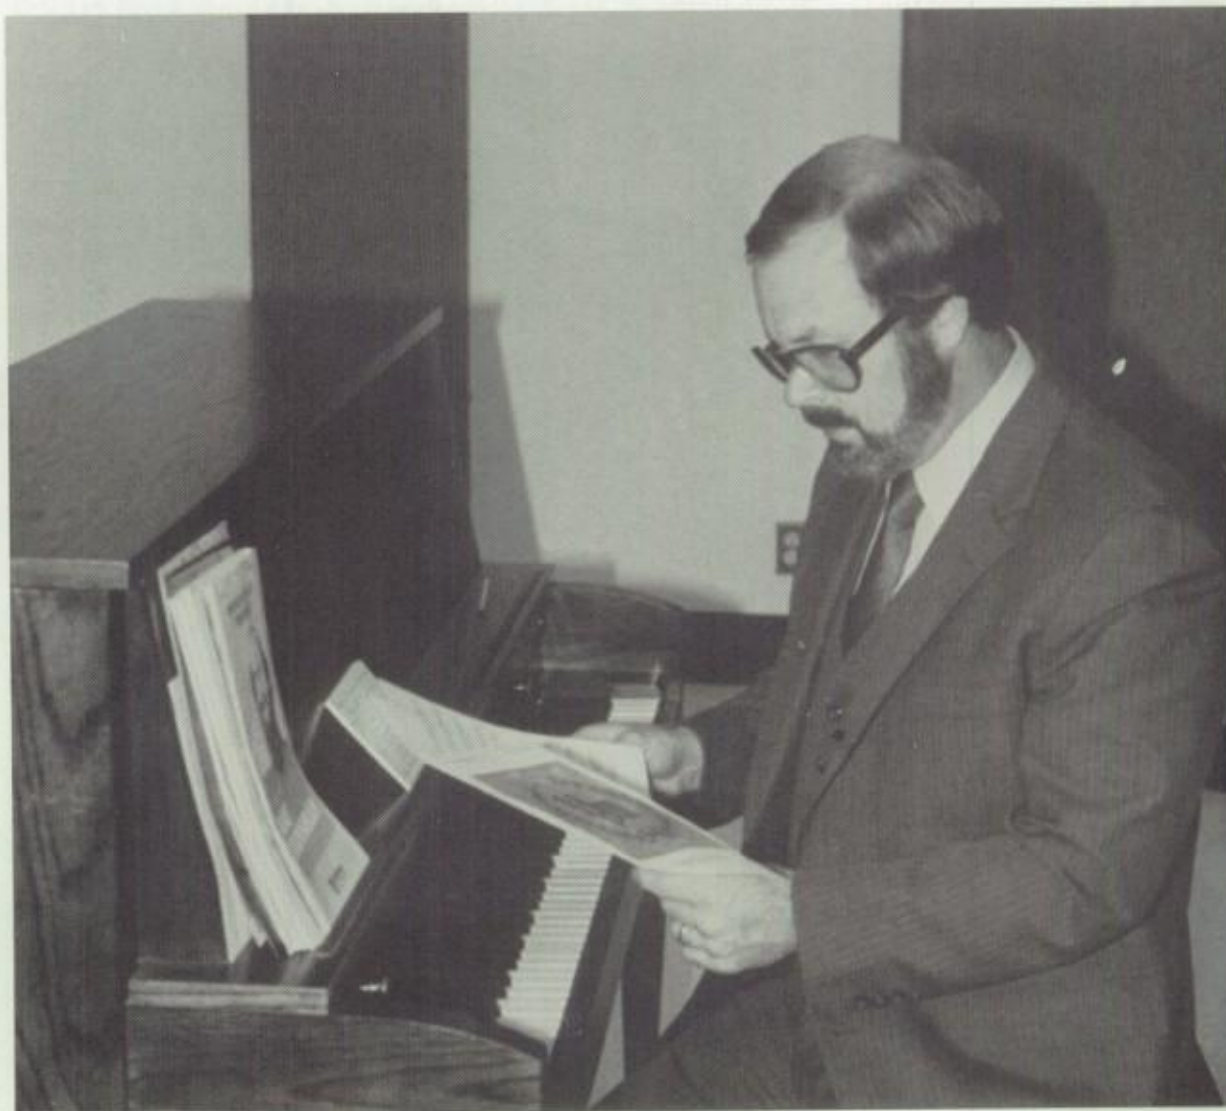

With concerts all year, especially those performed for the Park Cities Rotary Club, University Park Methodist, and HPHS, the choir stayed busy. In addition, the choir performed a special cable television concert.

Eleven choir members gained places in the All-District Choir while seven of those members advanced to the All-Region Choir. Several were selected to sing in the All-Area Choir, with the All-State Choir auditions held in January.

Capturing the leading roles in "Once Upon a Mattress," this year's spring musical, were seniors John McDaniel and Michael Young as Sir Harry and Prince Dauntless, respectively. Stephanie Jackson and Connie Shannon were doublecast as Princess Winifred. Senior Charlotte Martin and freshman Amy Meyers portrayed Lady Larkin. Courtney Johnson played the role of Queen Agravaire while sophomore Gilbert Brown was cast as the minstrel.

The choir held a garage sale, sold Tupperware, and performed odd jobs during the new "slave sale" to raise money.

Highlandaires, Revelaires combine, enlarge choir

This year the Revelaires and the Highlandaires combined. The elected officers were: Diane Brandes, President; Amy Franklin, Vice-president; Kim Allen, Secretary; Julie Dolan, Treasurer; Laura Loy, Historian; and Stacy Harrison and Wendy Jones, Librarians.

The groups raised money by selling trash cans.

At the beginning of the year the Highlandaires and Revelaires performed together in a concert. Around Christmas they had a Christmas show with L and L which was open to the public. Also, at Christmas the groups went caroling.

In February some members worked on the musical, "Once Upon A Mattress." All the work during the year paid off at the U.I.L. competition.

Science club views Apples, meters, scopes

The science club got off to a great start this year with the help of sponsors, Dr. Roe and Dr. Schultz. They helped members delve deep into the science field to learn about new and exciting discoveries.

The club learned about the electron microscope from a field trip to Dr. Schultz's lab. Later on in the year, Dr. Roe explained how to use an infrared-spectrometer that he built. The club plans to have many more exciting meetings, including a demonstration on how to use an Apple Computer.

This year's officers were: Beryl Wadsworth, president; Chris Ingolsby, vice-president; Susan Cook, secretary; and Bryan Beeman, historian.

Experienced gals swing new flags

The H.P.H.S. Flag Corps celebrated its fifth year in existence during the 1982-1983 school year.

Senior Julie Tinsley as captain and senior Kelly Keany as Lieutenant served as leaders for the corps consisting of eight female members.

During the half-time of each H.P. Scot football game, the corps performed as an auxiliary unit of the band.

Striving to perfect existing routines and develop new techniques, the members often practiced up to fifteen hours a week during marching season, which lasts the whole of the football season.

Practices began in early August under the direction of new sponsor Mr. Craig Luffy, the associate director of the H.P.H.S. band.

This year the corps received new, more traditional uniforms. The Captain and Lieutenant, chosen by an outside judge and approved by band director Mr. Theode, are announced along with other band officers at the annual spring band banquet.

Band grows to big size, larger sound

Mr. Don Theode directed the Highlander Band this year with the help of the Middle School Band director Mr. Craig Luffy. The band increased in size this year, going from 54 members last year to 73 members.

This large group kept active through the year planning activities and competing in contests, along with boosting Scot Spirit during the football season. At Christmas, they collected toys to take to underprivileged children. They also held a Christmas concert and dance. They attended UIL competitions in both the Spring and Fall. Also in the Spring, they attended state solo and ensemble competitions.

The Flag Corp received new uniforms, and the bagpipers continued to enhance the traditional sound of the Highland Park Scots Band.

UIL competition, christmas concerts occupy orchestra

The HPHS Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Weldon Wendland, had an exciting, fun-filled year. Members of the orchestra participated in All-Region competitions and the following students were named as All-Region Orchestra: Bill Kennedy, viola; Rebecca Lee, viola; John Rott, viola; and Adam Newman, cello. In February and April many members competed in UIL competition.

In December the Orchestra performed at the Galleria and in January played for this year's musical, "Once Upon a Mattress."

This year's elected officers were: Clay Reed, president; Adam Newman, vice-president; Marimon Simpson, secretary; Bess Masterson, treasurer; Traci Bower, librarian. Other officers include Jennifer Stuart, December Blair, and Kelly Nichols.

Trivia team begins season with success

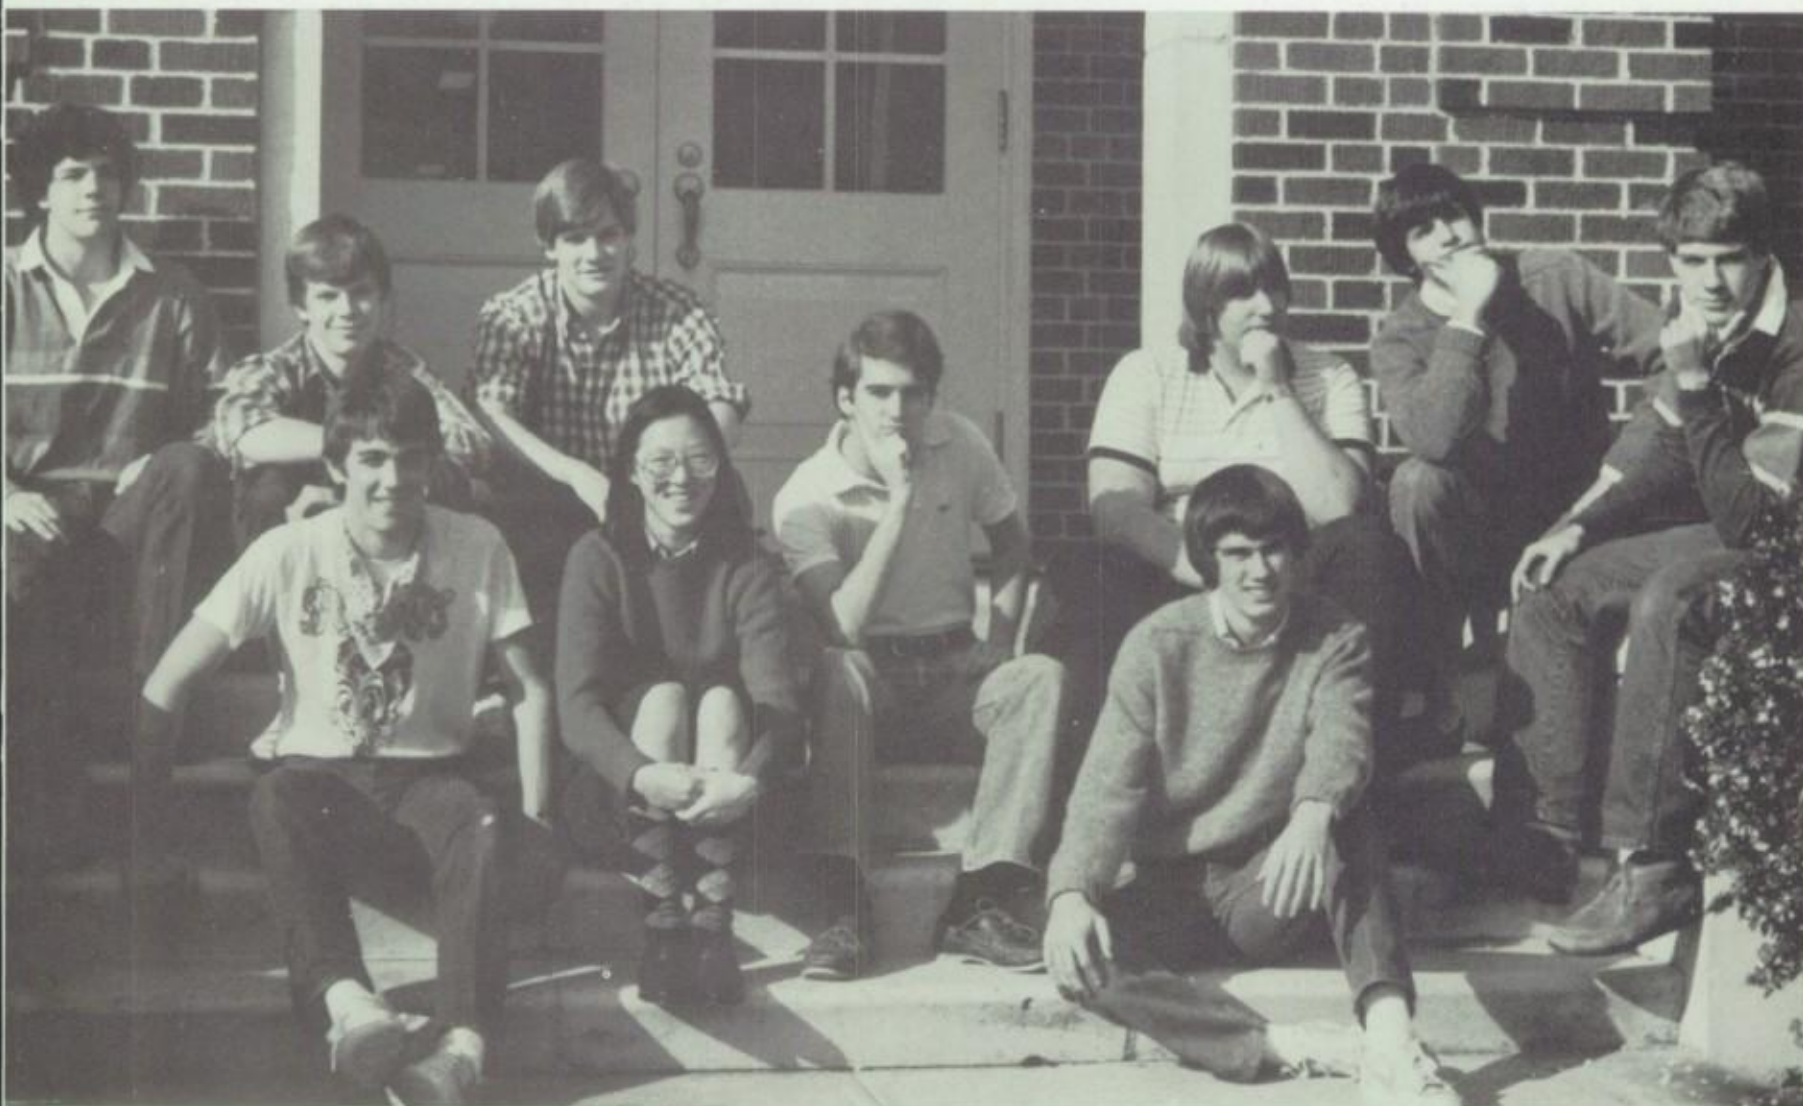

Once again, our in-school trivia experts whizzed through their season of tough competition. The Whiz Kids' success may be attributed to quick reaction time and practice. Each Wednesday morning these party animals devote their time to improving their whiz skills. The individual scores from these before school matches determined the composition of the team at real matches. Several times the awesome student team faced the faculty team in grueling intellectual matches.

Whiz Kids

Histrionic kids lead Thespians through year

Thespians took center stage in leading dramatic activities this year. Sponsors Mrs. Linda Raya and Mr. Dennis Day kept an eye on the meetings, which the officers planned and executed. Stephanie Jackson took the helm as President; other officers were Vice-President, Charlotte Martin; Clerk, Lisa Crook; Secretary-Treasurer, Leslie Schaar; Historian, Ellen Thomas; Senior Representative, Scott Roby; Junior

Thespians

Representative, Josh Larson.

Programs for the club included guest speakers, dramatic pieces performed by members, and previews of upcoming Highland Park shows. Thespians also held banquets in winter and spring, gave the annual Thespian Show, and visited local productions. In order to finance their activities, these histrionic students sold Tupperware during the fall.

Some members earned an International Thespian ranking. This honor indicates that a student has proven an interest in dramatics by participating actively in theatre activities. A candlelight ceremony initiated the new "Internationals" into the national Thespian organization.

A Harmonious welcome: Thespian officers Ellen Thomas, Josh Larson, Leslie Schaar and Charlotte Martin welcome students at the first meeting and encourage membership.

Surprise! Some of the Thespian members, Colleen Doherty, Ellen Thomas, Suzanne Porth, Scott Roby, Debbi Roberts, Cynthia Hill, Michael Young, John McDaniel, Margaret Boyle, Connie Shannon, and Gail Ward, wish Mrs. Raya a happy birthday.

This year the Chess Club was under the leadership of Mrs. Carol Seets. The club hoped to use its fees to purchase new game sets.

Some members brought sets from home while others used school-provided sets. Every other Wednesday, on interest club day, the members met to play either backgammon, checkers or chess.

The officers of the Chess Club, this year were John Paul English, President; Eve Shaffer, Vice-President; Abby Schonier, Secretary; and Caroline Kohler, Treasurer.

Varsity does well in contest, boosts spirit

The Highland Park cheerleaders were something to be proud of this year.

They all worked hard increasing school spirit throughout the year.

Varsity cheerleaders began their year at a U.C.A. cheerleading camp in San Marcus when they earned seven blue ribbons, two red, and one white. Sponsors Mike Mastandrea and Cathy Morris helped the squad reach perfection.

The Varsity cheerleaders were Margaret Shelmire and Mike Snyder, Libby Bernet and John Boughton, Mary Sowell and Gill Giddens, Elizabeth Thompson and Rick Walker, and Margaret Thompson and Johnny Griffiths.

Junior Varsity cheerleaders include Jenny Bernet, Tina Bernet, Anna Hampton, Leslie McElroy, Lee Roberts, and Tiffany Slayton.

Cheering for the freshmen were Audrey Esquivel, Emily Bright, Maria Hellberg, Gay Riley, Ellen Smith, Louise Smith, Laurie Shields, and Julie Woods.

German student attends H.P. through AFS

AFS

With increased membership over last year, the American Field Service again this year sponsored the highly-successful Valentine's Day carnation sale to raise money to support exchange students both here and abroad.

AFS student Andreas Muehlhoefer from Germany spent the school year learning about the American way of life. He stayed with the James Larsons. During the Summer, senior Daphne Glover was an AFS student to Japan while junior Amy Watson travelled to Quebec with AFS.

AFS officers, President Carolyn Brown; Vice-President Jenny Kelman; Secretary Kim Coffin; Historian Barbara Barns; and Publicity Chairman Anne

Porch, strove to make AFS a better-organized club.

During October the club hosted several area foreign-exchange students on International Day. They spoke to HPHS classes and ended the day at a dinner held in their honor. The annual Christmas Party in December featured yummy foreign munchies.

Through the efforts of the sponsors, head Miss Cathy Orr, Miss Priscilla Fullilove, Mrs. Clarice Kearley, and Mrs. Donna Pierce, the year flowed very smoothly.

AFS: Row 1: Miss Fullilove, Mrs. Kearley, A. Porch, C. Brown, A. Muehlhoefer, K. Coffin, J. Kelman, B. Barns, Miss Orr. Row 2: S. Wacker, J. Hunt, R. McClung, A. Watson, L. Gardner, M. Sailing club plans trip to the Bahamas

The Sailing Club opened up with the largest turn out of all the interest clubs. The club is the largest it has ever been, with leading officers Richard Tuma, Commodore; Lee Blaylock, Vice-Commodore; Linda Guest, Secretary; Maryann Maddox, Treasurer; Carter Malouf, Fleet Captain; and representatives from each grade level. Coach Johnson and Mrs. Self sponsored the club and helped organize the meetings. The club watched sailing slides and movies, rigged up sailboats, and learned to navigate by the Stars in the Planetarium.

The club organized two trips this year, one to Lake Texoma one to the Bahamas. The outing to Lake Texoma was actually a weekend trip, but the vacation to the Bahamas lasted one week. Members flew to the Bahamas where they rented five sailboats and lived on the high seas for seven days. The club had well-organized plans for activities all year.

F and S hunts, fishes, swims, camps outdoors

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Jimmy Lee, and led by President Rod Hargrave, Field and Stream had an exciting year filled with various activities.

In October, members went on a campout at Chuck Hutchinson's dad's farm near Greenville. Jack Sharpe caught a six pound bass, and a good time was had by all.

In January, the club had a skeet tournament and in March, the club went on another campout.

Math whizzes win competition

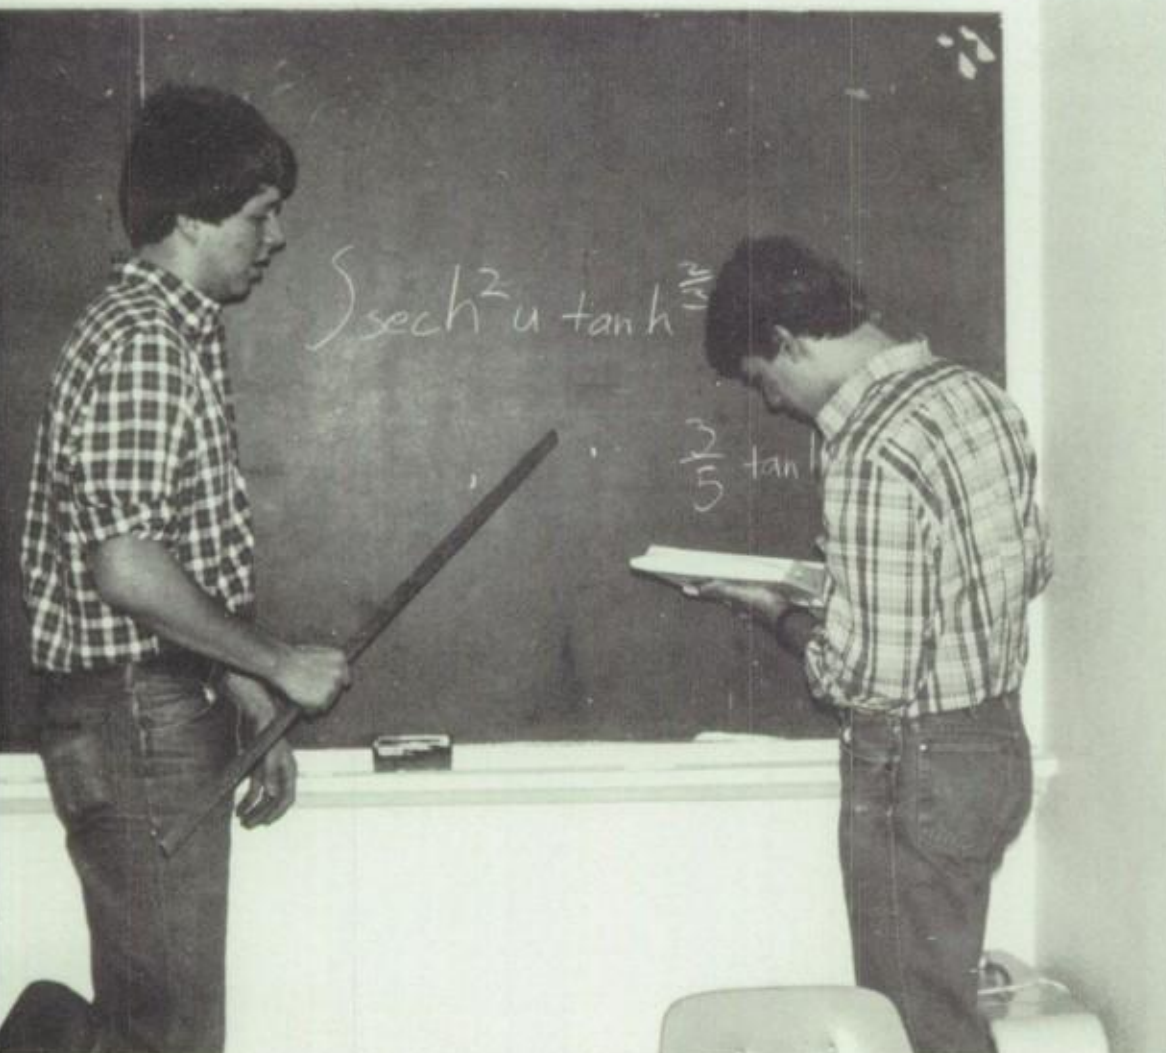

Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta organized a group of students to compete in local math and science tournaments. Mrs. Molly Long sponsored the group, while Long Dang took control as president.

Other officers were Dee Dockery, Vice President, Bart Showalter, Secretary; John Hamlin, Treasurer; and Michael Segrest, Parliamentarian.

During the fall, Mu Alpha Theta travelled to both Plano and Richardson to show off their prowess. In the Plano contest, Long Dang and Dee Dockery took 1st and 3rd in Science, respectively. Long also scored 3rd in Advanced Math and Micheal Yu took 5th in Algebra. Overall, the early morning Science team took 2nd place.

The group also competed in several contests in the spring, among them an SMU tournament.

Mathematicians: Scholarly students, Bart Showalter, and John Hamlin prepare for math club competition.

Guitar Club

President Hurt leads meetings for musical club

Pickin' and Grinnin', the guitar club began another year with officers Ellison Hurt, President; Jeff Moss, Vice President; Burk Burnett, Secretary; and Dub Taylor, Treasurer.

With the help of sponsor Dr. Lawrence V. Puckett, the interest club invited professional musicians to perform songs and to lecture on music. They also sharpened their skills at guitar during club period if there was no special event scheduled. The officers and members also planned a Spring Assembly so they could show off their talent to the school.

Officers: Burke Burnett, Tenche Coxé, Ellison Hurt, Phillip Worthen and Dub Taylor.

Records and Tapes

Keep your eyes on the ball: Miss Carpenter partipates in the annual Records and Tapes softball game.

The Records and Tapes Club started an exciting year with Mr. Mike Atteberry as the sponsor and board members David Coleman, Brian Miller, David Voekel, Adam Cox, and Robert Beecherl. They planned and participated in many unique activities through the year. In the Fall, the Highland Park teachers smeared the Records and Tapes Club members in a softball tournament. Members also made a western movie in the Fall. In the Spring, the club held the first annual Tolbert Marks football tournament. They also planned a volleyball tournament and carried out a camping expedition to Lake Texoma. All in all, the club had a fun-filled, exciting year.

Photographers teach novices special tricks

For his second year at Hi Park, Mr. Jerry Hill took on responsibilities sponsoring the photography club. The all-boy club was not as active as in previous years, but did participate in several inner-club contests. Members of the photography club worked on some of our prestigious school publications. Other "picture men" gave advice to new camera fans on the proper ways to adjust the focusing and lighting mechanisms, and also gave lessons on loading and unloading a camera properly.

Naval Station attracts HP's military men

This year the Military Service Club was sponsored by Coach Don Richardson and led by president Craig Lankford. The club's activities are primarily in the spring. This year the members went to the Naval Air Station in Grand Prairie and Carswell Air Force Base in Fort Worth.

The club had a local recruiter help with demonstrations at meetings and with their rifle team.

Girls support varsity Scots

Both the H.P. varsity football team and varsity basketball team received much support from the enthusiastic Highland Park girls. Individual players were each chosen by several girls to be "their guy" for the season. Much time and creative effort was graciously given as the girls aided in raising Scot spirit with all their gifts.

The girls behind the scenes heading up the group in support of the Awesome Football Team were Maggie Heal, Kelley Hill, Jennifer Simmons, and Allyson Smith. They were in charge of not only coming up with ideas for each week, but also of painting all the half-time run-through signs, and organizing the football parties after the games.

Before the season began, a meeting was held for the purpose of signing up for guys to decorate for each week. Some of the weekly spirit boosters included lucky H.P. horseshoes, peppy pillowcases, huggers, picture frames, decorated trashcans and popcorn cans, and munchies galore. They decorated the lockerroom also. For the Senior Varsity Studs, some of the girls put together a scrapbook filled with cherished memories of the 1982 season. The hard work of the football spirit girls was rewarded by the incredible success of the 1982 Scots.

Likewise, the Roundballers enjoyed a season filled with goodies and pep. Heading the group of Varsity Basketball Supporters were Tricia Bell, Kim Newsom, and Ellen Thomas. These gals led a spirited bunch of ladies that consistently surprised the players with treats. Each decorator wore a shirt to represent their player. On the shirt was the same design as the 1982-1983 basketball bumper sticker. Tricia, Kim, and Ellen borrowed some ideas from the football girls and thought of some original ideas of their own. The Roundballers especially enjoyed miniature donut cakes, hot chocolate mix and doo-dads, a decorated six-pack of their favorite soft drink, and a scrapbook reviewing the season.

The girls participating in boosting spirit for both basketball and football enjoyed the seasons and are appreciative of the guys' gratitude.

Bywaters kicks country club into a gallop

Fun was the main objective of the newly formed Country Club this year.

Under the sponsorship of Coach Van Hooser, Leigh Bywaters, President, headed the club with the help of Kee Crow, Vice President; Kaysie Graham, Treasurer; Clemmie Hardcastle, Secretary; and Colleen Doherty, Parliamentarian. Kelley Hill was Chairman of the Board with board members Shelly Spies, Lisa Reed, and Melissa Woodard. The group adopted a family this year, which they supported during Thanksgiving and Christmas with clothes and food. They also held a car wash and sold calendars to raise money to support the family.

For club meetings, various speakers came to talk on everything from exercise to Western fashion. The one hundred and twenty-five members also met with the Records and Tapes club for Country and Western dance instruction. In the Spring, the club held their country western dance to show what they learned. The Country Club ventured to the Dude Ranch for a retreat which they paid for with a garage sale.

upon arrival to HP

The gold ole days: Murray McCabe, Ashley Burford, Josh Bracken, Gay Reilly, and Ashley Aldridge revert to days of frolicking together in the playroom.

After a long, exciting summer, freshmen easily adjusted to life at high school with many social activities.

During the summer vacation, freshmen were jet-setting all over the world. Murry McCabe, Britt Bridewell, and Chris Majors visited the Hawaiian Islands. Alexis Hudson and Christie Roberts explored the scenic views of Colorado in Vail and Estes Park. Ashley Heckman stayed in Florida while John Bair and Michael Stewart relaxed at Lake Tahoe, California. Frank Hamlin traveled in Europe, catching exciting tourist attractions. Melinda Miller was an exchange student in Mexico. Pam Smith, Elizabeth Ball and Mark Darden saw the sights in New York as they sang in their church's production of "Godspell".

The most popular summer activity for freshmen, besides playing video games, was going to camp. Meredith Hunt spent several weeks at Camp Waldemar. Louise Smith, Cathy Kennedy, and Stephanie Bell went to Camp Arrowhead together. John Blaylock, Joel Nash, Rob Blakeney, Matt Hudnall and Bard Hoover stayed at Kanakuk Camp in Missouri. Nearby, at Kanakomo, Ashley Aldridge, Catherine Baker, Tam Johnsen, Allison Taylor, and Elise Ballard enjoyed outdoor life. Scott Henderson, Philip Beard, Mack Payne traveled with John Bair to Camp La Junta.

As the summer came to an end, there were several events preparing freshmen for high school. Orientation motivated many incoming students. Freshman girls met several upperclassmen at the Hi-Lites Picnic. Freshmen quickly became interested in many activities. Several boys joined Highland Park's new wrestling team. Other boys participated in football, basketball, soccer and baseball. Crystal McGuire and Julie Soukup ran on the Varsity Track Team. Amy Meyers was chosen to be a lead in this year's musical. Ashley Cecil and John Rubi were elected as Freshman Representatives for Student Council.

Freshman athletic teams were supported by several devoted cheerleaders. Louise Smith, Audrey Esquivel, Ellen Smith, Emily Bright, and Gay Reilly joined Maria Hellberg, Julie Woods and Laurie Shields in building up spirit for the freshmen.

SOPHOMORES

The "in" thing: Teenyboppers Mary Keliher, Jana Hobratch, Mike McCullough, and Brandon Williams get into the latest fads.

The Sophomores engaged in various activities during the summer vacation. From camp in Missouri, New Mexico, Texas, and Tennessee to traveling in Europe, Canada, Mexico, and across the United States, the Sophomores kept busy all summer long. While in Florida, Elizabeth Greene, Esther Weitzman, Michelle Muncey, Chrissy Jennings, and Marcie Thompson basked in the sun. Ann Marie Cowdrey had a rewarding summer by competing in a five state regional horse show and winning second place. Pistol Love and Anne Kimbrough watched their cash flow increase because Pistol was a counselor at Camp Longhorn and Anne worked at Holy Cow. Anne also volunteered at a hospital with Lynn Adams.

As many people traveled, worked, and played, the sophomore cheerleaders and football players worked at showing that Scot spirit. Tiffany Slayton, Anna Hampton, Jenny Bernet, Tina Bernet, Leslie McElroy, and Lee Roberts worked hard at cheerleading camp while John Stollenwerck, Brandon Williams, David Turner, Brian Owen, George Seay, and Trey Smith worked hard on new football techniques for the Varsity Scots. Stephen White, Glen Mack, Chuck Peters, Malcolm Showalter, and Tie Sosnowski got ready for Varsity Scot Basketball. The H.P. Student Body elected George Seay and Brandon Williams for Sophomore representatives-at-large.

Maturing juniors
join social scene,
hold dinner parties

Growing up: Junior class officers, Fulton Murray, Kit Canon, Haden Stone, and Jim Lancaster enjoy each other's company at dinner.

Throughout the school year, the Junior class was extremely busy with school activities. The Juniors proudly claimed many varsity football players as well as five varsity basketballers. Outstanding football players were David Sweeney and Glenn Evans, who made the First Team in District, and David Richards and Rod Jones, who were chosen for the second team.

The Senior cheerleaders broke in the newly-elected varsity cheerleaders, Lendy Leggett, Teri Rudolph, Kathy Murphey, Dinah Miller, Jeannie Smith, Jeff Kilpatrick, Scott Mills, Michael Lee, and Neill Touchstone. The Juniors also elected their class officers. Fulton Murray was chosen to lead the class as president, while Vice-president Jim Lancaster, Secretary Haden Stone and Treasurer Kit Canon helped out with the Junior-Senior prom.

Among the Juniors who chose to spend part of their vacation in another part of the country were Katherine Lynch and Stephanie Storm, who spent time in San Diego, while Michele Medlock visited San Francisco. Amy Franklin basked on the white sands of Hawaii, while Todd Bright, Robert McBee, and Gig Reeves travelled to Padre. Choosing the mountains to get away from the Dallas heat were Trez Patrick and Walt Holmes, who spent a few weeks in the Rockies in Colorado.

Camp was a lodestone for several HP Juniors. Jennifer New and Stephanie Storm were at Kanakomo, while Mike Lucas had a blast at Kanakuk. Kely Barber, Laura Sherill, Jim Lancaster, and Kit Canon decided to increase their knowledge attending the Andover Summer session in Massachusetts. Touring with a church production of "Godspell", Karen Krueger, Kim Allen, and Heather Cude visited New England.

From then - summer is almost here and we just started doing things together again.
 what did we wait so long for?! We have memories from way back when K - 11th now.
 And soon to be 12th! Dinner at DCC was great, but the tandem ~~right~~ ride over was better.
 Lunch together is a BLAST. I love doing my favorite hobby - "eating" - with my favorite friends! I'm glad you on the Knigh Riders board. It's going to be great next year! This summer we must get together sometime. And ride our selves away! I'll be home until - I'll call you & you call me. Have a great time at camp - now you love it. And don't forget new friends are silver; but your old friends are GOLD!
 Our memories are continuous & I know will continue forever! I love you, Po Chan.

Sr. class officers mature as result of grad preparation

SENIORS

Sr. Class Officers: Allyson Smith, vice-president; Nancy Dzina, secretary; Carolyn Brown, treasurer; and Ken Brown, president are ready for a fifty year reunion.

When the doors opened in August 1982, 355 seniors entered HPHS ready to rule the school. Not only did they face another year of homework, they faced college preparations of all kinds including SATs, ACTs, Achievement Tests, and, of course, senior parties, which began in the fall.

Several seniors were given special titles during the course of the year. At the Howdy Dance in September Mary Sowell and Hal Watson were named Friendliest. Then, Mary Sowell was named Homecoming Queen at the Homecoming Dance. Later in the year, Dee Dockery was named Hi-Lite King while Elizabeth Thompson became the new Basketball Queen.

Several seniors shined bright on the PSAT-NMSQT. Twelve intellectual seniors were named National Merit Semi-Finalists while sixteen others received Letters of Commendation for their accomplishments.

Dee Dockery and Kathy Sturgeon were both awarded the National Council of Teachers of English Award for their superior writing skills.

Andreas Muehlhoeffer, sponsored by the American Field Service, journeyed to Highland Park from Germany to experience the American way of life.

Jennifer Simmons received the Daughters of the American Revolution Award for good citizenship while Carolyn Brown received the Golden Herald Award for athletic leadership and ability.

Senior class office elections in February resulted in Ken Brown as president, Allyson Smith as vice-president, Carolyn Brown as treasurer, and Nancy Dzina as secretary.

Licking their chops: Bart Showalter, Elizabeth Thompson, and Boo roast hot dogs over an open fire on a cold winter night.

Many industrious seniors find time between their studies and parties to hold a job. Pam Bennett, Cole Ramey, and Liz Stocks will be glad to show you what Culwell and Sons has to offer while Susan Strodel will help you at Barbara Robertsons. Mitch Jordan boasts about Aslands while Debbi Roberts speaks of the finer quality of clothes at Mam'selle. Some Parkies feel sporting clothes are the thing to sell. Julie Branch finds Luke's Locker the place to work as Libby Bernet and Leigh Bywaters work at Doak Walker's. But some seniors feel they would rather work in a food establishment. Maggie Heal works at P.J.'s and John Paul English works at Zak's. Still other seniors find working at For Heaven's Sake or Dear John more rewarding, as Page Crossley and Elizabeth Thompson do. Jennifer Simmons finds working for Abio and Adleta a wonderful opportunity while Dana Wertheimer finds volunteering at the Suicide Prevention Center a rewarding job.

While these seniors work still others find time for play. Dan Tomlin occupies his time with his cars while Bart Showalter and Stuart McIlyar find stamp collecting more interesting. Margot Cottingham, former Miss Teen All American, models in her spare time while Greg Allison would rather play a round of golf. John Vandermeer, Tim Hook, Scott Shelton, Dave Reichert, and Deanne Franckhauser find hunting to be a fun sport while Johnny Griffiths and Amye Tatum would much rather improve their water skiing skills. Ken Brown, Tricia Bell, Elizabeth Thompson, Dana Wertheimer, Julie Branch, Tim Hook, John Vandermeer, Bart Showalter, Margaret Thompson, Stuart McIlyar enjoy trekking to small East Texas towns to eat, swim, and laugh all night long. Walt Sosnowski, Lisa Crook, Leigh Bywaters, and Cole Ramey would rather write articles for local newspapers. John Hamlin feels that no one else's hobby matches his of climbing rocks to the top and then turning around and coming down while trying not to kill himself. John Boughton enjoys watching movies which feature his idol, John Wayne. Margaret Shelmire enjoys taking as many pictures as she possibly can to insure that she does not forget one minute of her very enjoyable senior year. In addition to all of these, several members of the AP Chemistry class have formed an AP breakfast club to go to area restaurants to check the scientific names for what they consume by analyzing specimens during first period. Lastly, Michael Segrest enjoys seeing how long he can put something off before he gets in trouble. The senior class has accomplished much and should do well in the future.

Senior gentlemen
take time to enjoy finer things in life

SENIORS

One might never believe how the seniors of 1983 spent their summer of 1982. Camp fever struck several seniors. Janet Peterson, Mark Pillsbury, Gill Giddens, and Susan Cortelyou watched Camp Longhorn as counselors.

John Vandermeer worked at Camp Sweeney while Jennifer Simmons spent long days in Colorado. Walt Sosnowski and Barbara Barns attended PCBC youth camp. Some seniors were still campers at Mystic: Carolyn Brown, Erin Alexander, Lisa Reed, Page Crossley, Beth Moore, Lucy Stephenson, and Amye

Tatum.

Once again, several Scots gained some learning experience at Andover: Dana Wertheimer, Ellen Thomas, Amy Cristol, and Nancy Dzina. Kim Coffin, Barbara Barns, and David Crites traveled to Europe with Dr. Puckett on an AIFS tour. Also, John Hamlin went to Europe. Milledge Hart spent time in Wales with Happening. Janet Peterson and Ken Brown traveled with their parents and families to Florida after attending Jekyll with Catherine Hoover, Dave Riechert, and other HPPC group members.

Other seniors were more enterprising. Tricia Bell worked at a bank and Jennifer Brownlee sold jewelry at Preston Jewelry Center. Alison Grage and Jennifer Price earned money teaching swimming lessons to area kids. Anne Porch, Kim Coffin, Carolyn Brown, and other dedicated AFS members made several trips to DFW airport to entertain AFS students. But perhaps as the caper of all the trips and jobs was Margaret Thompson traveling to the moon. Now . . . after all this . . . what will they do in the summer of 1983?

Here, catch: Michael Segrest, Tim Hook, and Scott Shelton take time out of their busy schedules to play frisbee.

Good-by: Joyous Seniors make their escape from Highland Park High after four long years.

Frances, Frances,
 what am i gonna do w/out you? i'm gonna miss you so much you are coming up to see me. there is NO doubt. you've been such a good friend.
 a humongous help in biology. how we were even especially when you stood out in the hall) i'm gonna miss our foursome (sam, frances, pam, sally) except one went astray.
 frances - good luck in soccer and hi-lites. i'm so proud of you.
 you're a fantastic girl w/ a fantastic personality (it may sound like highlander b.s. but it's true) i love you frances & hope we stay in touch.

"LITTLE MAN"

Dear David,

As you have grown from a smiling, bright-eyed child into a caring and compassionate young person, you have been called by many nicknames, each representing a "special time" in your life. Now that you are graduating from high school and will be entering yet another "special time" you will be called a man. David, our prayer is you will mature into the person described by Leonard Wagner because:

"DOC"

"SUGAR BEAR"

THE WORLD NEEDS MEN

... who cannot be bought ... whose word is their bond ... who put character above wealth ... who will not lose their identity in a crowd ... who will be honest in small things as in great things ... who will make no compromise with wrong ... whose ambitions are not confined to their own selfish desires ... who will not say they do it "because everybody else does it" ... who are true to their friends in adversity as well as in prosperity ... who do not believe that shrewdness and cunning are the best qualities for winning success ... who are not ashamed to stand for the truth when it is unpopular ... who can say "no" with emphasis, although the rest of the world say "yes."

God, make David this kind of man.

We love you,
Mother and Daddy

"Badude"

"DAC"

"SMILING DEER"

David —

One of three greatest gifts God has given me is you.

She romps through our hearts and minds at will,
 Carefree and laughing, sometimes quiet and still —
 Her unsensitive nature and warm loving smile.
 Help us to abandon our worries awhile —
 She's grown into a woman, our little pink ball,
 Learning and living, unafraid to fall —
 She's pretty and fickle, and funny and sad,
 And sometimes she takes advantages of Dad —
 In all that she is, and may become,
 We'll always be with her,
 she's always the one — God's gift to renew us, this daughter of ours
 Justifying our existence, everyday, all the time!

That's all folks!

Hallelujah! After four hundred hours of hard work, moments of uncontrollable laughter and tears, fifteen rolls of ruined film, umpteen picture retakes, blood-shot, swollen eyes, at least five grey hairs, popcorn, pretzels, lem-tea, Coke, saltines, Grandma's Cookies, apple pie, and tostitos, the sixtieth volume of the Highlander was born. With its birth, our patience, stamina, and courage strengthened immensely.

The 352 pages of the Highlander were printed by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas. The book is divided into 22 16-page signatures on 80 lb. enamel paper.

This year we used a new type style, Optima, for the copies and captions. Special types in the introduction include Poster Bodoni, Broadway, Orbit, Bolt Bold, and Times Roman. The colors used throughout the yearbook are Marine Blue #12 and Process Yellow #52.

We would like to give a special thank you to Garry Natale of Landis Aerial Photo for taking our feature aerial picture, Mr. Midget and everybody at Bradley Photographers for helping with class pictures, Mr. Munroe and Acie Mitchell for their concern and support, and our photo servicers, Kincaid, Commercial Color, and Spectro Lab. Also, thanks to Phil Stephens at Park Cities People for his help with sports pictures.

If Gold "H" 's could go to sponsors, Miss Kathy Carpenter is certainly deserving. We thank her for her photography, her effort and her courage. Our gratitude also goes out to Miss Gladys Bradshaw for helping with all the sales and bookkeeping.

We would also like to thank our friends for all their help and our wonderful families for standing behind us.

Finally, we would like to wish the 1984 Co-Editors, Jennifer New and Katherine Lynch, as they carry on the tradition of excellence in Highlander-ing.

Party hearty! Football players and their dates relax at a party after the game.

Ahh: Robert Turner after a day skiing.
What a dork! The real John Poston!

Abby Normal: Bobby McCreeles pretends to be a neuro-surgeon.

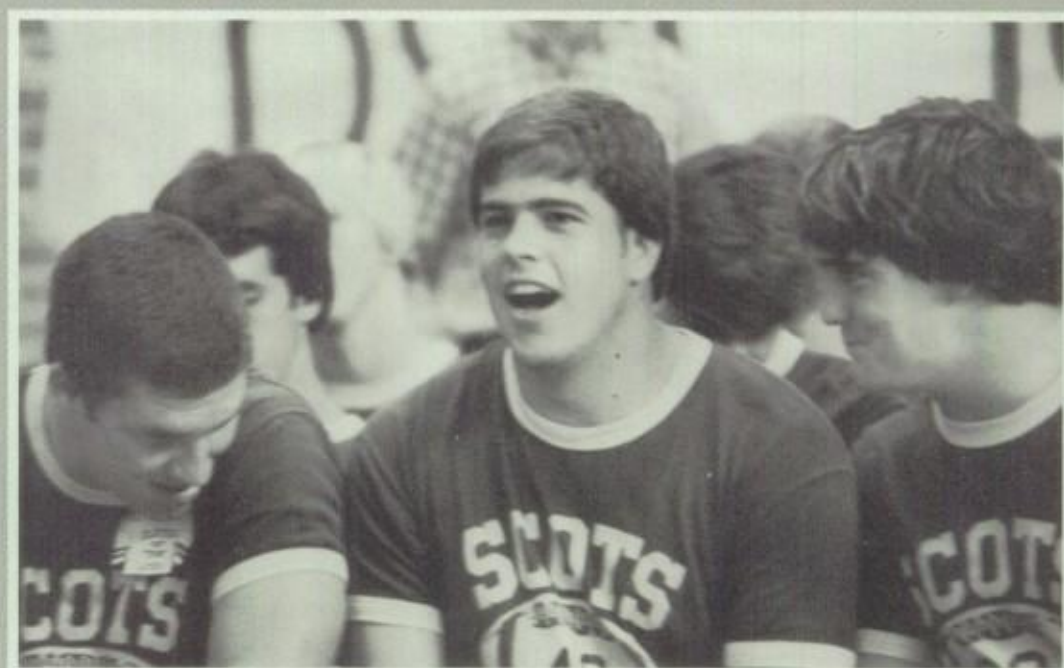

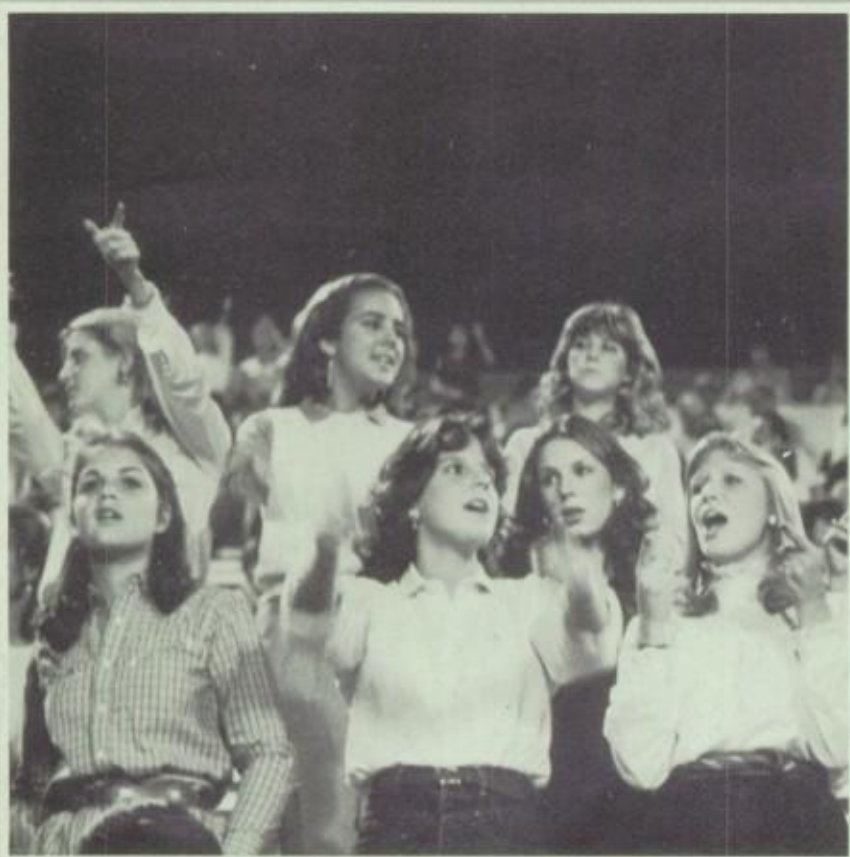

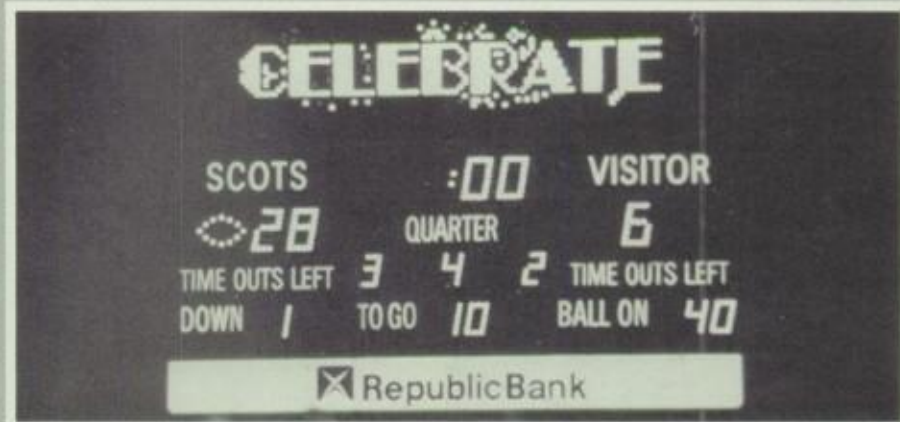

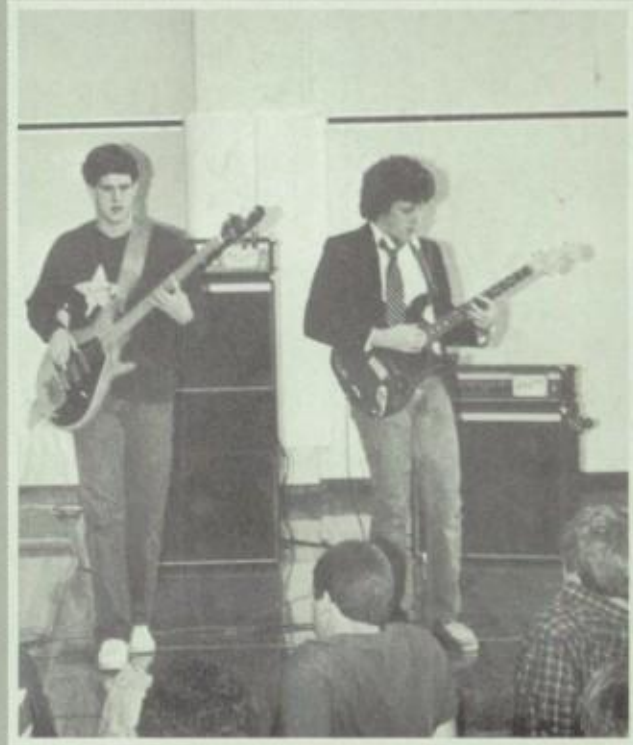

Time to get ready for U.T.! Captain Nemo gets help from Sr. Men.

Scots are number one! Hi Mom! Kathy Carpenter and Jody Tompson remember to say hello to their moms during lunch. All smiles: Nancy White, Deanne Franckhauser, and Betsy Wideman display their joy for the end of a great Sr. year.

A Year's Growth

Opposite page: Future businessmen: Scott, Brent, Mike, and Dub go over the PCP Society page. They are mad!: John and Bart let themselves go. Talented Trio: Larry, Harry, and Jerry entertain. Oh, what a day: Custodians socialize in the Commons. Blithe Spirit: Madame Arcati strikes again. Friday night hero: Hal, Richard and Phillip get excited at a pep rally. This page: Dolly Parton: Sr. women send a telegram to the Scots. Guitarzans: Ellison and Jeff show off their skills. Dedicated support: Mrs. Simmons, Mellissa, and Laurie cheer their team on. Raise your hands: Senior women love the Scots. Frosh fan: Louise Smith cheers for the Freshmen.

The Highlander has helped us grow.

From the cradle to the grave: Co-business managers and co-editors, Catharine Hoover, Mary Margaret Lynch, Tricia Bell and Jennifer Simmons portray our stages of growth.

FRANK,
Will we make it.

One & more year and it's the total party life for us! College is the ultimate and I know we will conquer!
I can't wait til we get going in Hi-lites!
It will be so much fun! We will have to go play!
DEFINITELY! Congrats by the way! Geometry has been a blast and I hope we'll share some of the fun next year. But, no worry, because I know we will.
Have an ultimate summer and let's play!

I love ya,
Libby

P.S. Mom, Dad, and John and their best!

Frances,

Hey cutie! I'm so glad you were in my English and Geometry classes. And I hope you are in a lot of my classes, if not all, next year. Next year is going to be a blast, being AWESOME SENIORS. Frances, you've got the best personality - such a fun person (if everyone was like you this world would be a dream!) Let's get together this summer (get out on ice-cream!)
Thank for your help in Eng. & Geom. Keep in touch!
Love,
Jilly Bean

Frances,
Hey woman! One more year . . . WE ARE
SENIORS!! I can't wait!
I'm so excited about Hi-lites - we're going to have so much fun - I'm excited for all of us!! Have a fantastic summer - I'll be seeing you! Take care,
Love
Haden

Frances,
My girl, I can't believe this year is already over! It has been a blast, but just wait till next year!
We will have a go party sometime!
Don't forget we still have to go to Austin sometime this summer! Give me a call and have a awesome summer, Don't forget to call! I / I Love always

Frances,
Thanks for being so sweet and nice this year. You've really been great!
Congrats on Social!!
So not ever change
& keep that beautiful smile on your face.
When ever you can look to you
we cheered up.
Love
Jennifer

Frances, driving me safely thru South Dallas. Lets go see Craig this summer when your
in between mystic + U.T!
I will have a ranch
for Eleisha (McNairy)
Have a sensational summer + always think of Eleisha when you party J.K.

Last Saturday was so fun at Sesame Place! It reminds me of the old days roller-skating at your church. I hope we can always be friends. Maybe till we're old and gray like our moms! Oops! ~~A~~ Don't tell your mom that. Hi-Lites will be so much fun next year. I know our class will be the best ever. Make sure you come to the wedding ~~next year~~ in July. It'll be a blast! See you soon.

Love Always,
Priscilla

Frances.... my best bud.... congrats on Hi-Lites.... I can hardly wait until next year! ... soccer w/ Mindy.... you and me may be slow, but we're tough... we'll show her next year.... you love to play cowboy.... your house is torn to shreds... rock showers... Mariano's w/ Carla.... going to the St. Mark's game and victory party to see Chris.... your love forever.... John Weir... David Nichols.... you can't decide can you... English.... notes from Charley and Brian.... you wish Brian Simmons was still in our class. (JK) Well, have a BLAST at Mystic! Call me when you get back! Let's play for sure! Love ya tons - Kim ☺
